C. L. BREWER

Mr. and Mrs. Julian Calhoun were called to Georgia on Monday by the sudden death of their brother-in-law, C. L. Brewer. He will be buried today at their old home in Sandersville, Ga. Mr. and Mrs. Brewer lived in Tryon for several years and are pleasantly remembered here.

The Women's society of Christian Service of the Methodist church Circle No. 1 will postpone the meeting to a later date.

Young Peoples group buffet supper which was to be held at home of Mrs. Nelson Jackson tonight has been postponed until Tuesday, March 10.

Mrs. Ryan McCown is visiting Mrs. William Rockhill at Fort Wayne, Ind.

The Weather

Weather on Monday: low 29 high 33; snow 12 inches; precipitation 1.64.

Asheville was cut off from the rest of the world on Monday by foot-snowfall which pulled down electric, telegraph, and telephone wires, stopped buses and slowed up trains. Ninety school children were unable to get home. Some damage was done in Tryon to the communications system and power lines were down. Tryon schools closed today. Most people left their cars at home.
