

ENTERED AS SECOND-CLASS MATTER AUGUST 20, 1928, AT THE POSTOFFICE
AT TRYON, N. C. UNDER THE ACT OF CONGRESS, MARCH 3, 1879

THE TRYON DAILY BULLETIN

The World's Smallest Daily Newspaper, Seth M. Vining, Editor.

Vol. 15. Est. 1-31-28

TRYON, N. C., WED., MARCH 4, 1942

E. C. Rowe

News has been received in Tryon of the death of Edgar C. Rowe the Presbyterian hospital in Chicago on Tuesday. Mr. Rowe had been ill for several weeks and had gone to St. Louis and Chicago for special treatment of internal pains.

Since telephone and telegraph lines were out of order on account of the snowfall, a message was not able to get through until about 6 o'clock this morning, when Mrs. Robert Evans, Mr. Rowe's daughter, called from Washington. No definite information as to funeral plans had been received at press time, but it was thought that services would be held at Lafayette, Ind., on Thursday or Friday.

Mr. Rowe is survived by his wife, who was with him in Chicago, and by four children, Mrs. Robert Evans, of Washington, D. C., Loring Rowe of Wayne, Ill., James L. and Miss Ruth Rowe of the University of Chicago, and two grandchildren, Grace Evans, age five and Catherine Evans, age two.

Mr. Rowe was a native of Evanston, Ill., a graduate of Princeton university class of 1902, and was a member of the University club of Chicago. He came to Tryon about five years ago after retiring from business and became active in the affairs of the Tryon Country club. He served as secretary last year, and was recently elected vice-president for this year. He was a trustee and chairman of the building fund of the Erskine Memorial Congregational church here, and an honor-

Continued on Back Page

CURB REPORTER

Well, Monte Dedman is back on the job again after over two weeks' illness. Maybe we can catch up on some Curb Reporter material which has been accumulating Horace Newman sent me a newspaper clipping several days ago which carried a picture of the Lefty Flynn's arriving at Norfolk, Va., to begin their work of entertainment for the sailors at the USO centers. This morning Horace's father gives me a new address for Horace. He has been moved to U. S. N. Receiving Ship, Charleston, S. C. We had Horace on the Bulletin mailing list as a gift from Tom Costa, who is sending the Bulletin to several service men Draft Board Chairman Julian B. Hester has been giving cigarettes to the departing soldiers as they left for induction in the army, but there were getting to be so many of them as the government called more men into service that the Rotary and Kiwanis clubs are taking up contributions among themselves to help out. Anyone else desiring to help out on the cigarette fund can join in, too. News Bulletin from the U. N. C. Woman's College states that Miss Peggy Lincoln made the honor roll of the Junior class the past semester, and that Miss Hope Schilleter has been elected treasurer of her Freshman class

Continued on Back Page