

5c PER COPY

$2.00 PER YEAR

ENTERED AS SECOND-CLASS MATTER AUGUST 20, 1928, AT THE POSTOFFICE
AT TRYON, N. C. UNDER THE ACT OF CONGRESS, MARCH 3, 1879

THE TRYON DAILY BULLETIN

The World's Smallest Daily Newspaper, Seth M. Vining, Editor.

Vol. 15. Est. 1-31-28

TRYON, N. C., WED., MARCH 11, 1942

CURB REPORTER

The weather on Tuesday jumped from winter to spring in a hurry. From a low of 28 the temperature rose to 69 Attorneys M. R. McCown of Tryon and J. E. Shipman of Hendersonville have returned from Washington, D. C., where they represented Mrs. Martha Lightner Boone before Judge Jennings Bailey of the District Court, who upheld Judge Rouseau's decision in awarding the custody of the Boone children to Mrs. Boone. Captain Boone's attorney indicated that an appeal would be made. In that case if it sets up bond another hearing will be held before the children will be allowed to come to Tryon R. H. Brady, chairman of the Polk County Boy Scout district states that Dr. C. Arthur Lincoln, chairman of the Court of Honor, has arranged for an interesting Boy Scout Court of Honor meeting on Monday night, at 7:45 at the Parish House. Coloured motion pictures of Colorado, taken by Scout Executive R. M. Schiele, will be a feature of the program. Public invited. Card from Horace Newman, U. S. N., written on the train from Charleston to Texas and mailed at Flomaton, Ala., writes: "I'm on my way to Texas, they say. In the Navy we never know anything for certain; everything is a secret. I saw the Flynns

-----Continued on Back Page-----

IN THE ARMY

The following Polk County men left recently to be inducted in the U. S. army. As reports come in from them their address will be given. Board Chairman Julian B. Hester presented each selectee with cigarettes as a gift of the Tryon Kiwanis, Rotary and other friends. Among those who left:

Buford Gosnell, William Howard Griffin, James Buford Lockhart, Walter Cannon Newman, Thomas Hartsell Greene, Ralph Porter of Tryon; Keith Wall Arledge, Dean Logan Cloud, of Columbus; Ernest Lee Johnson, William Vance Heatherly, James Arthur Bell, of Saluda; Diphus James Barnette, Manus Malcolm Barnette, Dewey Smith, Harold Dean Pittman, RFD, Landrum, S. C.; Garland Corn, Edward Elmore Ford, Theophilus Jackson, John Frank Revis, Calvin Gibbs, Willard Glenn Crisp, RFD, Mill Spring; James William Epley, Carl Gordon Turner, RFD, Chesnee, S. C.; Hanford William Rhodes, Woodrow Wilson Hardin, Lynn; Yates Arledge Miller, RFD, Rutherfordton; Charles Noah Wilson, John Willie Johnson, Melvin Hill.

Tryon Merchants To Hear Hendersonville Editor

Noah Hollowell, editor of the Western Carolina Tribune, of Hendersonville, will address the Tryon Merchants association at their first dinner meeting of the new year on Thursday evening at Sunnydale Log Cabin. Reservations for the dinner may be made with Mrs. Matt O'Shields at the association office. Any Tryon business man whether member or not may attend this meeting.