RED CROSS BENEFIT

In the refreshment booth at the Horse Show, sliced ham and cheese sandwiches, coffee and doughnuts will be on sale for the benefit of the Red Cross work room.

Due to national regulation no benefit may use the Red Cross name or symbol in advertising unless the gross proceeds accruing there from are given to the Red Cross.

Therefore, it is necessary that those who are interested in the Red Cross give sufficient funds to purchase materials for these refreshments.

The time is getting short those wishing to make donations should immediately contact Mrs. R. H. Millikin, who has kindly volunteered to head this committee.

In addition to growing soybeans for making oil you might be interested in getting a variety for eating. The county agent has just received information that Rokusun or Easy Cook varieties (2 of the best) may be secured from T. W. Wood Seed Co., and the Seminole variety from D. L. White Co., McBee, South Carolina.

These are fine in roasting ear stage and the Mexican bean beetle will not eat them.
