Speaking of Garden Seeds

The Garden Club Conservation is asking for further contributions to the Victory Garden seed fund. Planting time is NOW, and the requests for seeds are beyond the reach of the funds now available.

The committee wants it distinctly understood, however, that this is help for those who are willing and eager to help themselves, and not an effort that will result in creating another class of dependents. There are far too many already desiring help in every direction, from federal, state and social agencies, because such aid is now available and no one knows what conditions will be in another year. Of one thing we may be sure; conditions WILL BE CHANGED, and not on the helpful side; there will be shortages and sacrifices that do not exist at present. But this is precisely why the Victory Garden campaign was started: to educate the people, to wake us all up to the importance of good food, for good health and general self reliance and independence. In short every community and every individual in it should learn to be self sustaining; every citizen on his own feet, and on his own soil if possible, holding up his own head for freedom and self respect. If he has a back-ache from pulling up weeds, he will still have strength to stand up and salute the flag. And when eating time comes things will taste much sweeter than if the WPA or Uncle Sam himself had done the work.

The Garden club is out to help

Nominations Closed For Democratic Primary

Polk county's primary filing books were closed Saturday. Candidates who will appear on the tickets for the May 30th Democratic primary were released today, and the names of the Republican candidates who will oppose the candidates picked in the primary of May in the general election in November, were also released.

Democratic nomination in Polk County is not equivalent to election, as is in many Southern states because both Democratic and Republican votes are very close in Polk County; and successful candidates in the general election have been put into office by as small a margin as one and two votes. There have been two Republican sheriffs within the past 12 years.

The following Democratic candidates have filed for the primary, and the name of the Republican candidate who will oppose the successful Democrat for the respective office is also given in parenthesis following the Democratic names:

For state house of representatives: Carroll P. Rogers, W. H. McDonald, Democrats (Hugh M. Thompson, Republican); for sheriff, W. D. Hines, W. Y. Wilkins, Hague Kiser, Democrats (Fred Arledge, Republican); for tax collector, W. C. Hague, Dan Ledbetter, Democrats (Ed Newman, Republican); for county commissioner, C. O. Story, G. C. Feagan, Democrats (W. D. Westbrook, Republican); for clerk of superior court, Robert S. McFarland, no
