CURB REPORTER

Weather on Thursday: low 36, high 82 Mrs. Banning's guests are Bill Nye's nephew and his wife from Duluth Carl Goerch, who has just returned from Washington where he visited the Smithsonian Institution, reports that Mrs. Calvin Coolidge wore the shortest evening dresses of any of the first ladies of the White House Dudley C. Smith has been recommended by Defense Chairman C. J. Lynch to succeed K. A. Bowen as chairman of the rationing board. Mr. Smith met with Les Barnett and Dick Burnette, the other members of the Board Thursday night, and started work immediately. The permanent appointment will have to come through State Chairman Theodore Johnson and two or other fellows, maybe; but no better selection could be made than Dudley. He has made an excellent chairman of the campaign for funds for St. Luke's hospital. Treasurer Russell Walcott will make a report on that soon. Capt. Rufus Zogbaum, Fred S. Ford and Lieut. Robert T. Burnett are additional donors to the hospital fund H. R. Smith, who is visiting the Cunninghams is secretary of the Illinois bird society, and he is very enthusiastic over Tryon with its scenery, flowers, and numerous birds The Lefty Flynns are still at the
