

ENTERED AS SECOND-CLASS MATTER AUGUST 20, 1928, AT THE POSTOFFICE
AT TRYON, N. C. UNDER THE ACT OF CONGRESS, MARCH 3, 1879

THE TRYON DAILY BULLETIN

The World's Smallest Daily Newspaper, Seth M. Vining, Editor.

Vol. 15. Est. 1-31-28

TRYON, N. C., WED., APRIL 29, 1942

PANTHER RITES TODAY

Funeral services for John T. Panther will be conducted this afternoon at 3:30 o'clock at the Weelet Baptist church by the Rev. G. Henry and the Rev. E. W. Bailes.

Active pallbearers will be W. Y. Wilkins, C. O. Story, Lee Cochran, Demus Chapman, Albert Henderson and W. S. McCall.

Honorary pallbearers will be Charlie Foster, Tom Coleman, A. N. Kunkle, Ambrose Mills, Riley Henson, Malley Thompson, Frank Wilcox, T. A. Rippy, Oliver Andrews, Dr. M. C. Palmer, Dr. E. E. Missildine and W. W. Ballard.

MANVILLE-LEAGUE

Edward Perry Manville, son of Mr. and Mrs. E. Perry Manville of Tryon and Miss Mary Matilda League, daughter of Mrs. R. A. and the late Mr. League of Greenville, S. C., were married at high noon on Tuesday at the home of the bride's brother, Mr. John League in Greenville. The ceremony was performed in the presence of immediate members of the family by the Rev. George Farland Taylor of Tryon. The bride was educated at Flora MacDonald college. Mr. Manville is a graduate of Tryon high school. He attended Clemson college during which time he studied aviation, and is now a flight instructor at the Camden airport, where he and his bride will make their home after a short wedding trip. The groom's best man was Gene Reid of Gaffney, whom he met at Saluda while both were attending the summer band school. Mr. Reid is also flight instructor at Camden.

VICTORY FLOWER SHOW

Saturday, May 2, at the Parish House. Come in the morning before 12 o'clock to bring the loveliest specimens from your garden. Come in the afternoon or evening with 25c for war activities. See what has been growing in your neighbors' gardens. Hours from 3 p. m., to 9 p. m. As for specimens: Roses—Teas, Hybrid Teas, Polyanthus and Climbing; Iris—Bearded and Non-Bearded; Perennials, Biennials and Shrubs.

Three class of flower arrangements—one for Miniatures, one for Center of Table and one for Mantle. The emphasis is on the sharing of the beautiful things we can grow with a little effort.

The Garden club is sponsoring the exhibit in as simple a way as possible with no scenery and no frills. All classes are open to any gardener, whether a member of the club or not. The young people are to have their Peep-Show Boxes. The Katherine Hamilton Sweepstakes trophy will be awarded for the third time and will go to the winner of the largest number of blue ribbons.—Contributed.

"FIREBUGS" CAUGHT

The Polk County sheriff's department working in conjunction with the Forest Warden's force, have caught three men, who have confessed to setting fires in the County. Two of the prisoners were juvenile and were sentenced to the Jackson Training Camp on Tuesday. One admitted setting fire near the Railway Brotherhood's Home; the other admitted setting

-----Continued in Back Page-----