CURB REPORTER

Weather on Thursday: Low 52, high 86, rain .23 In yesterday's list of initial donors to the USO the name of C. J. Lynch was omitted through an error in copying. Mr. Lynch is always among the first to start the ball to rolling in most civic movements The price of those peonies in Costa's Flower ad is 75c a dozen. They are large beautiful flowers in all colors Nine Converse college girls entertained the Spartanburg Kiwanis club on Thursday with a mock radio broadcast emphasizing the national defense program. Among the actresses in the skit was Miss Mary Libby Pratt, who was also producer of the program. Miss Pratt often visits Tryon; has sung solos at the Congregational church and for the soldiers program at the Parish House The will of the late Mrs. John Gary Evans of Spartanburg was probated the other day. Her personal property amounted to $187,000. Part of it was left to grandchildren in Sweden and to her husband, former governor of South Carolina. Mrs. Evans was a subscriber of The Tryon Daily Bulletin and was interested in many friends and activities of this community Pretty soon Tryon grocerymen will have to work out some form of joint delivery service if the tire and gasoline situation gets worse.

Gasoline Rationing On May 12, 13, 14

Commencing May 15th, all non-commercial cars will need gasoline ration cards for the purchase of gasoline. Registration for these cards will be on May 12th, 13th, and 14th. Register where you registered for sugar. (Exception: Those who registered at Lynn and at the Tryon colored school will register at Tryon high school).

Bring your car registration card with you. If you have more than one card bring the registration card for each car. If you use your car for business, come prepared to state the daily mileage of the car for such purposes.

It is the intent of the government to curtail unnecessary driving, but to permit full purchase of gasoline for legitimate business purposes.

Operators of all trucks and other motor vehicles that are readily recognized as commercial vehicles will not need cards for gasoline purchases.

All other operators, including commercial users whose vehicles are not clearly marked as commercial, will need one of five types of cards to be issued on application.

Jerry Drew of Tryon, has been appointed Gasoline Advisor and will supervise the registration.

Watch the papers for further announcements. Remember the registration dates and remember that Gas Rationing will start on May 15th.

The Polk County Rationing Board has moved its office to the Washburn building. The office will
