

ENTERED AS SECOND-CLASS MATTER AUGUST 20, 1928, AT THE POSTOFFICE
AT TRYON, N. C. UNDER THE ACT OF CONGRESS, MARCH 3, 1879

THE TRYON DAILY BULLETIN

The World's Smallest Daily Newspaper, Seth M. Vining, Editor.

Vol. 15. Est. 1-31-28

TRYON, N. C., SATURDAY, MAY 16, 1942

HOURS of the Polk County Rationing Board office—

Each morning 9 to 12

Each afternoon 1 to 5 (except Saturday.)

For GASOLINE adjustments, See Mr. Drew—

Tuesday mornings 9 to 12

Friday afternoons 2 to 5

For SUGAR adjustments, See Mr. Vanderhoef—

Monday mornings 9 to 12

Thursday afternoons 2 to 5

Those working with the Rationing Board will appreciate your cooperation in observing the above hours.

Those desiring SUGAR for home canning may now apply at the Rationing office on Mondays or Thursday. Five pounds per person per year is allowed.

When applying bring Ration Books for the Complete FAMILY unit.

When the rains came Friday 4.11 inches fell according to W. W. Creaman's measurements. The temperature was 65, high 76. at 12 o'clock, June 3rd.

The Girl Scouts will have a week-end at the Lightner home, "Seven Mountains" as the guests of Mrs. Martha Lightner Boone.

AT TRYON SCHOOL

Baccalaureate sermon, May 24th.

Senior Class Night, May 27th.

Seventh Grade exercises, May 28th.

Senior Class graduation, May 29th.

THE BULLETIN—6 months $1.

At The Churches

Sunday Schools at usual hours
Visitors Welcome at All Services.

First Baptist: Rev. B. G. Henry minister. Sermon subject at 11 a. m. "Preparation for the Blessing." Prayer meeting and choir practice at 7:45 Wednesday.

Pacolet Baptist: Rev. B. G. Henry will preach at 7:45 on "Waiting for Power." Prayer meeting Thursday at 7:45.

Tryon Presbyterian: Rev. D. M. McGeachy will preach at 8 p. m. on "The Place of Prayer."

Columbus Presbyterian: Mr. McGeachy will preach at 11 a. m. on "The Refuge".

Tryon Methodist: Rev. R. W. Blanchard, minister will preach at 11 a. m. on "My Favorite Son." and at 8 p. m. on "Just the Touch of a Hand." Prayer meeting on Wednesday, followed by choir practice.

Congregational: Doctor Gerard Priestly, noted English Congregational preacher and lecturer of London, will be the guest preacher at 11 a. m. Topic: "The Spirit of an Unconquerable City." He is a brilliant speaker, and is an authority of international affairs. He has visited Germany eight times since 1933, and in 1938 was in the Balkans and Turkey where he met many leading political figures and was a guest of the Rumanian government. He was in Europe when war was declared. He will bring a first hand account of events in Great Briain. He leaves this month for a tour of Central and South Amercia.

Christian Science at 11 a. m. at Lanier Library. Subject, "Mortals and Immortals."

Continued on Back Page