TRYON, N. C., TUESDAY, MAY 26, 1942

CURB REPORTER

The weather on Monday was 50 low, 75 high, rain .15 . . . What about it being just 18 degrees above freezing in Tryon just one week from June, and yet you'll hear some of our winter visitors say how they would hate to be here in the summer time. Every year more of them find out how comfortable it is in Tryon during the summer. They find there is a mountain breeze blowing nearly every night and that blankets are necessary in the mornings; mountain hikes and picnics, boating and swimming at Lake Lanier, golf, tennis and swimming at the Country club, horseback riding, softball and numerous other activities besides war work, Red Cross and other civic projects . . . C. J. Lynch has just received a letter from W. H. Moulthrop, manager of the California Parlor Tours Co., who was here last fall with the travel tours motorcade. He writes, "You certainly gave us all a delightful afternoon. In looking over some old papers I came across some photographs taken of the event; would you like to have them?" A letter went right back for the photos. It just shows that Tryon's efforts to entertain made a lasting impression . . . Federal Court at Anderson, S. C., finds two violations of the gasoline ration act and refers them to Washington . . .
