

ENTERED AS SECOND-CLASS MATTER AUGUST 20, 1928, AT THE POSTOFFICE
AT TRYON, N. C. UNDER THE ACT OF CONGRESS, MARCH 3, 1879

THE TRYON DAILY BULLETIN

The World's Smallest Daily Newspaper, Seth M. Vining, Editor.

Vol. 15, Est. 1-31-28

TRYON, N. C., FRIDAY, MAY 29, 1942

LOUIS BUNTE TO SING AT PIANO RECITAL

The piano recital of Mrs. Louis Bunte's pupils will be held on Saturday evening at 8 o'clock at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Nelson Jackson, Jr. Anyone interested may attend. The program is as follows:

My Red Umbrella (Frost). Ann Bowen; Minuet in G (Bronson), Mickey Hopkins; Castanets (Rebe) Betsy Walcott; Gay Vienna (Rebe), Helen Brundage; Romance (Sibelius), Pat Hopkins; Military March (Schubert), Elizabeth Anne Vining; Baritone Solos, Louis F. Bunte; The White Seal's Lullaby (Benson) Chimes (Thompson), Ann Bowen; Gliding (Covey) Mickey Hopkins; Prelude in G (Weybright) (Homage to George Gershwin), Helen Brundage; Calm as the Night (Carl Bohm) Betsy Walcott; Nocturne Op. 9 No. 2 (Chopin), Elizabeth Anne Vining; Opening Theme from the Concerto (Grieg), Pat Hopkins.

Nutrition Class Tuesday

The first Nutrition class in Tryon will be started on Tuesday, June 2nd, at the Parish House at 8:30 under the direction of Miss Elizabeth Watson. Anyone wishing to enroll in this class may call Mrs. Robert Erskine, phone 257-W.

Softball Results

In a double-header Thursday evening the Bushwhackers defeated Soumerco 8 to 5 and Soumerco defeated the Tryon Players 13 to 1.

Vacation Bible School Commencement Tonight

Closing exercises for Columbus Bible school will be held tonight, at the Columbus Presbyterian church.

This school was sponsored jointly by the Baptist and Presbyterian churches of Columbus, and has been well attended by the children of the community. The enrollment is 72, an average attendance is 57 to date.

The school was under the direction of Rev. H. F. Bean, pastor of the Baptist church, who was ably assisted by the following: Intermediate department, Rev. D. M. McGeachy, pastor Presbyterian church; junior department, Miss Vadah McMurray, Mrs. Jas. Swain, Mrs. H. F. Bean; primary, Miss Helen Gilbert, Mrs. Byron Rector of Tryon; beginners, Miss Eunice Cloud, Mrs. Sam Dobson; general music teacher, Mrs. Joe Wilson.

Mill Spring vacation Bible school, under joint sponsorship of the Baptist and Methodist churches of Mill Spring, will open on Monday, June 1st, at 10 a. m. School will be held each day Monday through Friday for the period of June 1st to 12th. The school will be directed by Rev. H. F. Bean, pastor of the Baptist church.

Various local persons will teach, including Rev. M. W. Edwards, pastor of the Methodist church, who will superintend the intermediate department.

Old or new copies of The Tryon Daily Bulletin for sale at 5c each.

THE BULLETIN—6 months $1.