

At its third meeting on Friday The Home Friendly club welcomed still more interested people who crowded the room and brought new ideas.

The treasurer, B. L. Ballenger, had the best news. Having been $75 in the red three weeks ago, we are now $41 in the black with more promised. This enables us to start new projects which were waiting for funds.

Besides cash contributions welcome donations are coming in from business men: Khaki for fifty kits from B. L. Ballenger and the much needed filing cabinet and desks from W. C. Ward.

A new committee with Mrs. Bernard Manning as chairman, will send a birthday message to every boy whose family sends the date and address to her or leaves it at the town office with Mrs. Lancaster. One has already gone at short notice across the continent by air mail.

The kit committee, Mrs. P. D. Karsten, Jr., chairman, meets next Monday at 2 o'clock in the Parish House to make the bags. Everyone is welcome—bring suggestions as to filling them.

Mrs. George L. Canfield, our sole representative as the boys leave, reported that their splendid attitude made it a deeply moving occasion.—(Contributed)

A picture of Rev. L. R. Akers, of Tryon was in today's Charlotte Observer and news about his conducting a revival at Calvary Methodist church there.

The Kiwanis club will meet on Tuesday at 1 p. m., at Oak Hall. President George A. Cathey in charge of the program.

Cole Graves Brundage received the Estill award for Good Citizenship at the graduation exercises this morning at Asheville school.
