

ENTERED AS SECOND-CLASS MATTER AUGUST 20, 1928, AT THE POSTOFFICE
AT TRYON, N. C. UNDER THE ACT OF CONGRESS, MARCH 3, 1879

THE TRYON DAILY BULLETIN

The World's Smallest Daily Newspaper, Seth M. Vining, Editor.

Vol. 15. Est. 1-31-28

TRYON, N. C., TUESDAY, JUNE 9, 1942

CURB REPORTER

Weather Monday, low 66, high 91; rain .10 . . . Friends of St. Luke's hospital are not all made just during the spring drive each year. A donation has come in from Mrs. Orton Lowe and the USO campaign which recently went over the top has been helped by a contribution from Mr. and Mrs. Robert N. Golding of Lake Forest, Ill . . . Marion Brock, who was inducted into the Army recently has arrived at Fort Warren, Wyoming, Co. G. 3rd Reg. Q. M. T. C., Bks. 546. He says there is snow on the mountain peaks there now. He writes for a subscription to the Bulletin so he can keep up with friends here . . . Some other new subscriptions goes

Mrs. L. W. Robinson in Asheville, Hugh Hill at Hickory; John E. Walker, W. T., care U. S. Navy, U. S. S. Kalmia, care Postmaster, New York City; Miss Irene Clarke, Shelby, N. C.; Private Wm. Marion Smith 306th C. A. Bar. Bln. Btry. B., 118th & Doty St., Hawthorne, Calif.; M. E. Rion 415th Sch. Sqdn. Keesler Field, Biloxi, M. E.; Herbert Foster, Route One, Saluda; Mrs. W. W. Martin, Washington, D. C. . . . Miss Edith Thurston has moved from Cedar Spring, S. C., to Hendersonville . . . Brian Bell, Washington Associated Press chief who died yesterday was a native of York, S. C., and had been a

Continued on Back Page

MRS. SINGLETON GREEN

Mrs. Cleland Singleton Green, 65, wife of Singleton Green of Hendersonville, and for many years a resident of Tryon, died Monday night at St. Luke's hospital. Funeral arrangements are in charge of Sheppard Funeral home at Hendersonville. The body will be taken to Columbia, on Wednesday for interment.

Swimming for Soldiers

The forty soldiers coming to Tryon from Camp Croft next Sunday have been asked to bring their bathing suits and take advantage of the opportunity to go swimming in Lake Lanier. There will be no scheduled program at the Parish House, but those not caring to go swimming may go to the Parish house after 3 o'clock and play ping pong, darts or other games with groups of friends. Hosts and hostesses are asked to call for their soldier guests at the bus station at 11:25 Sunday noon. Mrs. F. P. Bacon, chairman of the reservation committee states that there are a few more soldiers available for those caring to entertain one or more at Sunday dinner. Donations for transportation may be left with Tom Collum at Missildine's.

Cash income from farm marketings in April for the entire country totaled $973,000,000.00, or 46 per cent higher than the $665,000,000.00 received in April of last year.

Extra copies of the Bulletin on sale at the office 5c each.