

ENTERED AS SECOND-CLASS MATTER AUGUST 20, 1928, AT THE POSTOFFICE
AT TRYON, N. C. UNDER THE ACT OF CONGRESS, MARCH 3, 1879

THE TRYON DAILY BULLETIN

The World's Smallest Daily Newspaper, Seth M. Vining, Editor.

Vol. 15. Est. 1-31-28

TRYON, N. C., THURSDAY, JUNE 18, 1942

CURB REPORTER

Weather Wednesday: low 63, high 86 . . . C. V. Elliott, near Columbus brought in a load of fresh corn for Tryon merchants today. Small, full ears with a delicious flavor. Nice for those liking corn-on-the-cob . . . Thanks to Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Davis for a copy of America's largest newspaper, The Inquirer and Mirror of Nantucket Island, Mass., where the Davises are spending the summer after wintering in Tryon at the R. T. Brooks house . . . The A. W. Brintnalls who get so many interesting things at their Seven Hearths Antique shop, have just received the American Collector, a magazine for antique dealers. It has an article, "The United States Navy in a Tight Spot" and a picture of Admiral Dewey at Manila, painted by R. F. Zogbaum, father of Capt. R. F. Zogbaum of Tryon. The magazine also shows the beginning of the Red Cross idea as far back as the Civil War . . . Reading the Duke Ad in today's Bulletin reminds us that the Duke Power Company is one of the biggest taxpayers in the County, and from time to time has reduced its electric power rates in accordance with the rules of the Public Service commission. In figuring up the cost of owning an electric water heater for the past seven years, it amounted to about 50c

Continued on Back Page

A TON OF RUBBER HERE

A check-up this morning showed that over a ton of rubber has been collected this week at local service stations. Approximately 30 people have contributed to the scrap pile. One cent a pound is paid for it. One farmer on Hogback road brought in about 275 pounds. Boys are scouring the neighborhood for old tires, rubber boots, balls, mats, etc., etc.

Hard Fought Softball Game

The Adams-Millis team defeated the Tryon Players 8 to 7 in a ten inning softball game Wednesday afternoon. The Bushwhackers will play Adams-Millis today at 6:30.

Lieutenant Jervey Wounded

A telegraph message received in Tryon Wednesday from the commanding officer of the army at Hawaii stated that Lieutenant Allen J. Jervey, Jr., had been seriously wounded. No further details had been received by his wife at noon today. Lieutenant Jervey received his military training at the Citadel in Charleston, S. C.

CONFECTION

A candy made from sweet potatoes and another from 3-day-old bread were among the war-time exhibits at the annual convention of the National Confectioners' Association in New York.

An important food factor in World War No. 1, dehydrated meat, appears destined to play an even more important part in the winning of World War No. 2.