

ENTERED AS SECOND-CLASS MATTER AUGUST 20, 1928, AT THE POSTOFFICE
AT TRYON, N. C. UNDER THE ACT OF CONGRESS, MARCH 3, 1879

THE TRYON DAILY BULLETIN

The World's Smallest Daily Newspaper, Seth M. Vining, Editor.

Vol. 15. Est. 1-31-28

TRYON, N. C., TUESDAY, JULY 14, 1942

POLK COUNTY SCHOOLS OPEN ON MONDAY

All the schools, white and colored, of the Polk County Unit will open for the summer session on Monday, July 20th, according to an announcement by County Superintendent Dr. W. E. Sawyer.

The principals of the various schools will be the same except for Stearns in Columbus where R. A. Wilson, a former principal, has been elected. Mrs. R. K. Landis has been acting principal. Mrs. Landis, who was formerly a member of the Columbus school district has also resigned from that and she has been succeeded by Jake Holbert of the Peniel section.

COMMUNICATIONS

Mule Shoe, Texas.

Dear Sir:

I wish you would make some mention in your paper to the effect that by the assistance of Sunday school section of Baptist State Convention, L. L. Morgan and his association, we are to have in the Green River Association, a Sunday school enlargement campaign beginning next Sunday, 19th, and running through to Sunday, 26th.

We are urging all churches in the Green River Association to join in this very important campaign.
J. H. Gibbs,
Associational Sunday School Supt.

Rock Spring Homecoming Is Postponed

Due to the tire and gas rationing, the annual homecoming and singing will not be observed next Sunday at Rock Spring. There will only be the regular church service.

CURB REPORTER

Weather Monday: High 93, low 63, rain .04 Master Sergeant Walter Bell has been transferred from Camp Shelby to Camp Gruber, Okla., 461st Depot Co. He writes he hopes Tryon has been enjoying much cooler weather than Mississippi. . . . Dr. J. Sprole Lyons, Sr., father of the later Dr. J. Sprole Lyons, Jr., of Landrum, died in Atlanta Sunday. He was 81 Miss Betty Hoyt of Jacksonville, Fla., stopped over at Oak Hall for lunch on June 30th and saw a copy of the Bulletin and has written for a copy Les Barnette says he has collected 37,000 pounds of scrap rubber since the campaign started The directors of the Tryon Chamber of Commerce met this morning and discussed the distribution of the new pictorial folder just off the press advertising Polk County as well as Tryon. As the folders are expensive the best distribution possible is desired by the directors. Anyone knowing of people interested in coming to Tryon or Polk County may apply to the Chamber of Commerce for a folder Miss Lucile Cobb, treasurer and society editor of The Morganton News-Herald, died Monday of a heart attack.

Adams-Millis defeated Tryon Players 20 to 6 in softball Monday afternoon. The Bushwhackers and Soumerco will play this evening at 6:30.