600 Attend Farm Picnic Tuesday In Polk County

Approximately 600 persons attended the annual Polk county Farmers' Federation picnic, held at Columbus on Tuesday.

A total of $452.60 in war bonds and stamps was bought or pledged during the all-day event. The bond and stamp booth is a regular feature of the federation events this summer.

James G. K. McClure, president of the cooperative, presided and stressed the importance of the farmer in the war effort. Several other persons spoke and a number of musicians and entertainers appeared on the program.

Mr. and Mrs. Thompson, with nine children, had the largest family present. Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Pritchard were the oldest married couple on hand and Mr. and Mrs. Marion Chapman were the youngest. O. C. Harrison, with 29 persons, hauled the largest load to the event.—Asheville Citizen.
