HEROES DAY

Today is Heroes Day when all Americans are expected to show their appreciation of the men who have given their lives to their country by buying defense bonds and stamps which are on sale at the Tryon Bank & Trust Co., and Post Office. Stamps are also on sale at The Ballenger-Jackson Company and a few other places where they ask you to take part of your change in stamps. Polk County has over 200 men in the armed forces of the country. They will be found in the army, navy, marines, air corps, and there are several women as nurses, Red Cross or social service work. They are in Alaska, Hawaii, Jap prisons, in Australia, Africa, South America, Iceland and the British Isles.

Bushwhackers Defeat A-M

The Bushwhackers with only 9 of their players defeated the big A-M Millis squad of 10 by a score of 7 to 6 Thursday afternoon at A-M park.

Batteries for Bushwhackers: Honemann and Capps; for A-M: Pace and Wilson. Umpires Link Ravan behind plate and Bill Bradley on the bases.

Seized Car Is Ordered Returned To Polk Man

A 1931 Ford coupe seized when police arrested Morris Lawter here recently on charges of transporting whiskey was ordered returned to J. H. Ruff of Polk county by Judge Sam M. Cathey yesterday. Mr. Ruff filed papers showing he held a mortgage on the car.—Asheville Citizen.

Homemakers Urged To Buy Victory Food

Starting today and continuing until July 25th, local merchants will feature broilers and fryers as a Victory Food Special. This is the fourth Victory Food special to be featured in this area.

Speaking of the success of the previous "Specials", Joe Wilson, Polk County Agent, said: "Local homemakers and storekeepers are to be congratulated for the splendid cooperation they have given the government in the promotion of Victory Food Specials. When we increase the consumption of farm products that are in abundance, we are all helping the war effort. By eating health-building foods we are not only making America strong but we also are assisting farmers by buying their products that are in temporary abundance.

"Victory Food Special on broilers and fryers will give clever housewives the opportunity to serve one of America's favorite foods without stretching the family budget." Here are some table tips on broilers and fryers which come from the Bureau of Home Economics, USDA:

Ordinarily, you'll buy chickens to fry or broil by their dressed weight. That is the weight of the chicken picked but not drawn and including head and feet. The weight of a drawn chicken is about three-fourths that of a dressed chicken. Best chickens for table use are well-rounded—short and stocky rather than rangy. All bones are well-covered with flesh
