

5c PER COPY

$2.00 PER YEAR

ENTERED AS SECOND-CLASS MATTER AUGUST 20, 1928, AT THE POSTOFFICE
AT TRYON, N. C. UNDER THE ACT OF CONGRESS, MARCH 3, 1879

THE TRYON DAILY BULLETIN

The World's Smallest Daily Newspaper, Seth M. Vining, Editor.

Vol. 15. Est. 1-31-28

TRYON, N. C., THURSDAY, JULY 23, 1942

Please remember the canning demonstration FRIDAY at 2:30 at the Parish House. Everyone is welcome.

Mrs. W. C. Alexander has returned to Saluda from St. Luke's hospital where she was treated on Monday afternoon for injuries received in an auto accident near Mill Spring. Several ladies in a Spartanburg car which was in the collision, were given first aid treatment at the hospital, but they were taken to Spartanburg that afternoon. One of the ladies had a broken leg.

The Broadus Mills property in the valley has been sold to Donell Flynn. Sale through G. Harrison Bridgeman.

Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Spurdle of Elizabeth, N. J. and Mr. and Mrs. Thomas S. Clark of Staten Island, N. Y. are guests at Oak Hall hotel.

Dudley C. Smith, chairman of Polk County Rationing board who returned today from a meeting with state officials at Raleigh, will be in charge of the Rotary club program at Sunnysdale Friday at 1 p. m.

Bushwhackers and Soumerco will play softball this afternoon at 6:30 at Adams-Millis park.

"Never Give a Sucker an Even Break" is the title of the movie at Tryon Theater Friday only. W. C. Fields and Gloria Jean are the stars.

Only four page Bulletin today.

FOR RENT: Three-room unfurnished apartment near Tryon high school. C. O. Story, Lynn, N. C.—Adv. tf.

CURB REPORTER

Weather: Cool rains pulled the thermometer down 10 degrees, so that it got no hotter than 83 at any time Wednesday. The low was 70. Rain .22 of an inch
Corporal Glenn Thompson's address now is Battery E. 263 C. A., Fort Moultrie, S. C. (He doesn't get the Bulletin). Corporal Keith Arledge of Camp Claiborne, La., is home for a visit with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Arledge. He says he is kept pretty busy with his training and hardly has time to write but surely does appreciate the Bulletin with news of friends. Private Julius L. Collins is now with the Bomb Sqdn. (L) A. A. F. Greensboro-High Point Airport. Corporal William L. Garrett is having his Polk County News changed from Gunter Field, Ala., to 677th Sch. Aqdn, Bainbridge, Ga. Frederick D. Arledge, Jr., is a new subscriber at Fullerton, Md. Kyle Davenport, Jr., is now a major in the Marines, stationed somewhere in the Pacific. Lieut. Jack Davenport of the Air Corps is probably somewhere in English or North Atlantic territory
All the stores and filling stations at Mill Spring have agreed to close Thursday afternoons for their half holiday, until further notice
Secretary of State Cordell Hull will speak over the radio tonight at 8:30, Columbia

Continued on Page Two