CURB REPORTER

Weekend weather in Tryon saw cool showers shoot the thermometer down to the 60's. Saturday high of 81 dropped to 68 with a little over half an inch of rain, .52. Sunday's 85 dropped to 67 with .65 of an inch of rain . . . Lt. Wm. St. Julien Jervey, M. C., of Camp Rucker, Ala., has renewed his subscription to The Bulletin. . . . Tryon Players vs. Adams-Millis today at 6:30 in softball at Adams-Millis park . . . Thos. E. Durban, advisory engineer, Erie, Penna., addressed an inquiry to the Tryon Chamber of Commerce for list of hotels and rates for the winter season. His "N.C." looked so much like "Neb." that it was sent to Tryon, Nebraska, where it was opened by the Tryon Graphic, newspaper of that city, and sent on to Tryon, N. C. Local hotels and inns are being given Mr. Durban's name and Mr. Durban is being sent a list of the hotels and a copy of Tryon's new folder. With all those connecting links Mr. Durban should be enjoying Tryon's winter climate this coming season. . . . One of the busiest places in town is the Polk County Rationing Board office. The other day they had to give a rationing card to a fellow wanting gas for an airplane. Marion "Greasy" Edwards has a model airplane which uses a tiny bit of gas, but it had to have an
