TRYON BOYS' CLUB ENDS SUMMER'S WORK

With an interesting commencement program held in the auditorium of the Tryon high school, the Tryon Boys' club ended its Eighth Annual Session on Friday, July 31st. Dr. George Farrand Taylor, chief speaker on the program gave a talk on the importance of boys making the most of their opportunities and being ready, physically, mentally and morally for emergencies of life. About ten members of the club gave demonstrations on first aid, others gave talks on bird study, cooking, weaving, airplane modeling, and different phases of the work during the summer.

Group No. 3, under the leadership of Donald Arledge, obtained the greatest number of points, thereby winning the plaque for 1942. Mac Albrecht was awarded the cup by popular vote as being the boy who stood out as a representative of the ideals which the club had stood for during the past eight years. A hotly contested softball game ended the session for the summer with the entire group anxious for the work to continue next year.
