

ENTERED AS SECOND-CLASS MATTER AUGUST 20, 1928, AT THE POSTOFFICE
AT TRYON, N. C. UNDER THE ACT OF CONGRESS, MARCH 3, 1879

THE TRYON DAILY BULLETIN

The World's Smallest Daily Newspaper, Seth M. Vining, Editor.

Vol. 15. Est. 1-31-28

TRYON, N. C., FRIDAY, AUG. 7, 1942

RED CROSS NEWS

Emil Lewis from National headquarters will teach senior life saving and water safety instructor course in Hendersonville on August 10th to August 21st from 8:30 to 12:30 (Mondays and Fridays).

Requirements: Minimum age 19 years; outstanding swimmer and possesses reasonable satisfactory teaching ability. The one requirement we want to stress is that every individual who will register will be planning definitely towards the conducting of classes.

Any one wishing to register, get in touch with Mrs. George A. Cathey at once, Phone 438.

BLACK—SMITH

A Washington (D. C.) newspaper reports the announcement of the engagement of Miss Doris Winnifred Black to Mr. William Francis Smith, son of Mrs. William Frank Smith and the late Smith of Washington and Tryon, N. C.

Miss Black is a daughter of Mrs. Frank Keely. She attended George Washington university and Georgia State college for Women at Milledgeville. Mr. Smith is a graduate of The Western high school and the National University School of Law. The wedding will take place in October.

SOFTBALL NEWS

Tryon Players and Bushwhackers will play softball this evening at 6:30. Soumerco defeated Adams-Millis Thursday.

Extra copies of the Bulletin on sale at the office 5c each.

Air Wardens Organized

Over 50 men, white and colored, attended the Air Raid Warden's meeting over Missildine's Thursday night. Civilian Defense Chairman C. J. Lynch, presided, and explained the purpose of the meeting and civilian defense in general, which is necessary in winning the war. Attorney M. R. McCown read the Town ordinance which is published elsewhere in this issue, making it a misdemeanor for anyone to leave lights burning during blackout periods, or to drive an automobile with lights, or have any light showing at all during blackout periods. Air Raid Warden Chief W. W. Creasman explained the duties of the wardens, and after studying the locations of the various streets and volunteers available he will make assignments and instructions at the next meeting to be held Monday night at 8 o'clock, just one hour and fifty minutes before the BLACKOUT. A practice siren was given last night at 9 o'clock. There will be one each night at the same time until 9:50 Monday night in order to get the public acquainted with it. (Listen for the siren tonight at 9. You may practice yourself by turning your lights out for a minute.) The Air Raid Wardens were sworn in by Mayor E. E. Missildine who emphasized the importance of each man doing his duty for his country. To make the BLACKOUT a success is an important step in showing our loyalty and spirit of cooperation.

Brotherhood Meets Tonight

The Baptist Brotherhood will meet tonight at 7 o'clock at Lake Lanier Tea House.