

ENTERED AS SECOND-CLASS MATTER AUGUST 20, 1928, AT THE POSTOFFICE
AT TRYON, N. C. UNDER THE ACT OF CONGRESS, MARCH 3, 1879

THE TRYON DAILY BULLETIN

The World's Smallest Daily Newspaper, Seth M. Vining, Editor.

Vol. 15. Est. 1-31-28 TRYON, N. C., TUESDAY, AUG. 18, 1942

TRYON DIST. SCHOOLS TO OPEN SEPTEMBER 1ST

The Tryon and Lynn schools will open for the 1942-43 session Tuesday morning, September 1st, at 9 o'clock. All pupils will report to their respective class rooms and attend the opening exercises in the school auditorium. The public is cordially invited to attend these exercises.

All pupils entering the Tryon school for the first time with the exception of "first grade" pupils are asked to register on Monday morning, August 31st, at the superintendent's office, between the hours of 9 a. m. to 12 m. This is necessary for the pupils to be properly classified and assigned to grades where they are to begin work. All pupils will be tested the third week of school for reclassification. First grade pupils are required by state law to be checked tested for diphtheria and urged also to take the smallpox vaccination. Both can be given by the family physician or the county health clinic.

Teachers for the 1942-43 session: Marcus B. Caldwell, superintendent; Edwin L. Beach, high school principal, teacher of mathematics, physical education and music; Myrtle Baldwin, teacher of languages and social science; Anne Sevier, English and journalism; Martha Mason, home economics and science; Mrs. Walter Jones, music; B. I. Lands, director of school band; Ada M. Viele, commerce and mathematics; Elmina Wages, seventh grade; Mary E. Gamble, sixth grade; Estelle Pace, fifth grade; Thelma Mills,

Continued on Page Four

rites conducted for C. E. SANDERS, 72

Funeral services for Cotesworth Eugene Sanders, 72, former Spartanburg and Charleston newspaperman, who died Monday morning in Patton Memorial hospital, Hendersonville, were conducted in the J. F. Floyd mortuary chapel at 11 o'clock this morning.

Dr. William Elliott and Dr. David Earnhardt of Saluda, N. C., and the Rev. M. B. Patrick of Spartanburg officiated. Interment in Oakwood cemetery.

Active pallbearers were Frank Rogers, Roy France, Austin Reeves, Homer King, Raymond Patterson and Fred Walters.

Honorary pallbearers were H. E. Depass, Sr., G. Hollifield, Pierre H. Fike, Charles O. Hearon, Dr. Coleman Waller, A. M. Chrietzberg, Charles C Kirby, Philemon Trimmier, Dr. Lionel Lawson and Robert Dargan, all of Spartanburg, and from Saluda, Dr. D. L. Smith, Sr., Dr. E. M. Salley, Henry Corwith, H. L. Capps, K. J. Davis and Albert Salley.

The oldest son of the late Cotesworth Pinckney Sanders and Clara Elizabeth Wilson Sanders of Spartanburg, Mr. Sanders was engaged in newspaper work on The Spartanburg Journal and The Charleston Evening Post. In recent years, he was associated with his sister, Miss Tocoa Sanders in the operation of Copisa Orchards near Saluda, N. C.

Mr. Sanders is survived by the following brothers and sisters: Miss Tocoa Sanders, Saluda, N. C.; Mrs. J. Frank Foshe, Norfolk, Va.; Mrs. L. A. Emerson, Colum-

Continued on Back Page