CURB REPORTER

Weather Tuesday: High 77, low 55 Some of the regular winter residents of Tryon who remained here this summer are probably surprised to find October weather here during August. They won't believe you when you tell them that we have so many, nice cool days in the summer, and during October when the leaves turn to their beautiful colors under a clear blue sky there'll be hikes and picnics galore Private Charles W. Nessmith is now at Fort Eustis, Va., Batry B. 1st Btn. 1-106 . . . The Santa Fe railway passenger cars carry huge signs on their sides reading BUY WAR BONDS. The company is having the same message lettered on 200 box cars. . . . Chairman Julian B. Hester reported the other day that Polk County needed to buy about $5,000 more of E bonds to reach the quota assigned us by the government The Duke of Kent, youngest brother of King George and Edward Windsor, was killed in an airplane crash over Scotland Monday . . . The scrap metal pile opposite Tryon Motor Co., is growing. Have you contributed something? Did you phone the Town Office to get the pile of metal in front of your house? Your contribution may make the shell that will end the war . . . This

MRS. LUTHER THOMPSON

Mrs. W. Luther Thompson, 69, of Saluda, died this morning about 4:30 a. m., at her home. She had been in declining health for some time.

Mrs. Thompson who had made her home in Polk county for many years, was a daughter of the late Madison and Mary Kilpatrick Cantrell of Henderson county. She is survived by her husband, William Luther Thompson; three sons, Richard Luther, Roy Alonzo and Franklin William Thompson; two daughters, Mrs. Frank Whitaker and Mrs. Grady Johnson, all of Saluda. One brother, William Alonzo Cantrell, of Seattle, Washington, also survives.

Funeral services will be held Thursday afternoon at 3 o'clock at the Friendship Baptist church near Saluda, with the Rev. M. A. Kizer of Weaverville, a former pastor, and Rev. Malcolm Ross of Tryon officiating. Burial will be in the church cemetery.
