

ENTERED AS SECOND-CLASS MATTER AUGUST 20, 1928, AT THE POSTOFFICE
AT TRYON, N. C. UNDER THE ACT OF CONGRESS, MARCH 3, 1879

THE TRYON DAILY BULLETIN

The World's Smallest Daily Newspaper, Seth M. Vining, Editor.

Vol. 15. Est. 1-31-28

TRYON, N. C., WED., SEPT. 2, 1942

CURB REPORTER

Weather Tuesday: High 72, low 60; rain .92. . . . William V. Maid of 320 Broadway, N. Y., sends a clipping from the New York Sun to Nelson Jackson, Jr. It has a Tryon date-line and repeats Monte Dedman's Associated Press story about the Polk county draftee who looked at all the questions on the Selective Service questionnaire and wrote as the simplest way out of the puzzle: "I'se ready when you'se ready". . . . August 30th was a big day for North Carolina and the Liberty Ship Construction Co., at Wilmington. It was "M" day of achievement in men, management, materials, machinery, etc. Governor Broughton was the chief speaker. Admiral Emory S. Land presented badges of honor to the workers who built ships in record breaking time. Out of 15,000 employees, Woodrow Hague of Tryon was chosen as one of the seven to receive the merit badges from the admiral. . . . Today's Charlotte Observer has a picture of Bob DuRant of Tryon and two other Davidson football players getting ready for opening practice Tuesday. Bob is listed as a backfield player. . . . Tryon young people are being scattered all over the country as a result of the war. Mrs. Charles H. MacDonald (Sara Rion) has a job

-----Continued on Back Page-----

Maximum Price Regulations Consumer Services

Maximum price regulations prohibit any supplier of a consumer service from charging for such service a price higher than that charged during the month of March 1942. Every supplier of a consumer service must file, on or before September 10th, with his local War Price and Rationing Board, a statement of his maximum service charges during March and must have a copy or duplicate of this statement available to customers at his establishment. Each supplier must keep this statement up to date by filing prices for new services within 20 days after he first supplies such a new service.

Consumer services cover, among others, such items as ash, debris, garbage or trash removal; automotive vehicle lubrication, maintenance, painting, rental, repair, storage, etc.; bicycle rental or repair; business, office or store equipment or machinery maintenance, rental or repair; carpentry repair (shopwork only); clothing, garment or household fabric alteration, blocking, cleaning, dyeing, mending, pressing, etc.; commission selling, auctioneering or brokerage of commodities; electrical appliance maintenance, rental or repair; farm equipment maintenance, rental or repair; fur repair or storage, furniture cleaning, repair, reupholstery, etc.; oil burner maintenance, rental or repair; photography services; radio and phonograph maintenance, rental or repair; safe de-

-----Continued on Back Page-----