HILTON—MOORE

Miss Margaret Louise Moore, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Moore of Tryon, became the bride of First Lieutenant Thomas L. Hilton, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. T. L. Hilton of Greenville, S. C., in a ceremony Tuesday evening, September 1st, at 8:30 o'clock at the Post Chapel, Ellington Field, Texas.

Chaplain Johnson officiated.

The bride wore a suit of aquamarine with brown accessories. Her flowers were a corsage of orchids.

The bride's only attendant was Miss Jessie Byers of Wilmington and Tryon, who was dressed in a suit of dusty rose with brown accessories. The bridegroom had as his best man, Lieutenant H. L. Logan.

The couple left immediately after the ceremony for a wedding trip to Mexico, after which they will make their home in Houston, Texas.

Dr. Bomar, Saluda Supply

Dr. E. E. Bomar of Landrum who supplied the Campobello, S. C., Baptist church for seven fruitful months ending first Sunday in August, is now engaged in supplying the Saluda Baptist church until a resident minister is secured. Dr. Bomar has announced as his topic for next Sunday morning, "The New Birth."

Tryon Post Office starts closing Saturday afternoons this week. It will close Monday for Labor Day. Get your stamps Saturday morning or wait until Tuesday.

REV. D. J. PARTEE

Rev. Daniel J. Partee, prominent Tryon colored citizen, district official of the Negro Masonic Grand Lodge of North Carolina and an ordained minister of the Baptist church, passed away Wednesday morning about 11:15 at St. Luke's hospital after an illness of about two weeks. He had been in declining health for several months. Partee was a native of Hendersonville but had made his home in Tryon for over 20 years. He conducted a public transfer service, and was janitor for Jackson & Jackson and worked for Blue Ridge Weavers for the past 15 years. During part of that time he carried the mail for the government between the post office and railroad station. One of his former employers said: "A faithful and trusted servant has passed on."

Partee is survived by his wife, Alberta Partee, and five children: Bertha, Lillie, Howard, Boyce, all out-of-the-state, and Walter of Tryon. Bertha, who lives in Chicago will arrive home Saturday.

Funeral services for the deceased will be held in Hendersonville Sunday afternoon at 3:00 at the Star Bethel Baptist church. The body will remain in Tryon at the McFarland Funeral Home until Saturday afternoon.

Miss Clara Edwards, who has been in St. Luke's hospital for treatment of wounds received in a fall from a horse last week, has recovered sufficiently to leave the hospital.
