

ENTERED AS SECOND-CLASS MATTER AUGUST 20, 1928, AT THE POSTOFFICE
AT TRYON, N. C. UNDER THE ACT OF CONGRESS, MARCH 3, 1879

THE TRYON DAILY BULLETIN

The World's Smallest Daily Newspaper, Seth M. Vining, Editor.

Vol. 15. Est. 1-31-28

TRYON, N. C., THURSDAY, SEPT. 10, 1942

Advice to the Negroes

Let's give The Journal and Guide, evidently a wise journal and a good guide for the negro people, a publication of Norfolk, Va., this opportunity to utter some intensely sane and appropriate remarks on war problems faced by the people who are its constituents, under the editorial caption of "Let's Win the War."

"If the United Nations should be forced to make peace upon Hitler's terms the greatest sufferers would be the American negroes.

"A military stalemate that would find Hitler still short of his goal of world conquest, but which necessitated a negotiated peace, would be just as disastrous to American negroes.

"If there is a negotiated peace the pro-Fascist elements in America will have the upper hand, and they are already girding themselves to administer to the negroes of America a fate worse than that which befell the Jews in Germany and Poland.

"If America does not win this war decisively, with Hitler on his knees and completely liquidated, there is no future for negroes in America.

"Any negro who does not realize that is not intelligent. Any informed negro who thinks that his condition in America under the Hitler dictated peace would be other than that of a slave—stripped of all human rights—needs to be examined by a lunacy commission.

"A war in which the American white man is fighting to remain

.....Continued on Back Page.....

DRESS REVIEW HELD

The Polk County 4-H Club Dress Review was held Tuesday at Green Creek. Winners from various sections of the county participated. First place was won by Miss Geneva Horne of Green Creek; second place by Miss Frances Jackson of Mill Spring; third by Miss Vera Ledbetter of Sunny View. These three young ladies will accompany the Home Demonstration Agent, Miss Gladys Hamrick, to the district contest in Asheville to be held sometime in October. Miss Horne will represent Polk county.

Bushwhackers Win First Game Softball Finals

In the first game of a three game series the Bushwhackers defeated Soumerco 6 to 3 in a hard fought game Wednesday at Adams-Millis Park. The second game will be played today. If Bushwhackers win, the series will be over. If Soumerco wins, there'll be another game Friday to determine the winner.

Soldiers To Dinner

Have you made reservations through Mrs. F. P. Bacon, to entertain soldiers in your home this coming Sunday. You may have one or more as guests for Sunday dinner and then turn them over to the community committee for the picnic supper at Harmon Field.

Tryon Boy Scouts will cook their own supper tonight at the school house grounds. Boys to bring a little kindling to build their own fires, and the food they want to cook. Time, 7 o'clock.