Three More Red Cross Instructors Available

M. B. Caldwell, chairman of the Red Cross First Aid Training Committee, has announced that three more certified instructors are available to the community, and all persons needing first aid training are urged to volunteer immediately so that classes can be formed. The excellent work done by Mrs. Martha Boone, Dr. Woody and Dr. Wm. St. J. Jervey and Dr. Preston last year, cannot be repeated this year without additional instructors as Dr. Woody, and Dr. Jervey are now in the armed service. Dr. Preston and Mrs. Boone have been sick and the work is too heavy for the doctors with the extra load they are now carrying.

Miss Martha Mason, the new home economics teacher of the Tryon school, is one of the new instructors for white people. Jacob A. Tillman, principal of the Negro school, and another colored teacher, the wife of Lemuel Ross Boulware, will be two certified instructors for the colored people. All air raid wardens, auxiliary police, auto drivers and others doing defense work need this first aid training.

Notify Mr. Caldwell by phone, letter or in person your name as a volunteer for first aid instruction.

SOFTBALL TODAY

What may be the last softball game of the season will be played today at 6:30 at Adams-Millis park between Soumerco and the Bushwhackers. Public invited.
