Sayre Wins Golf Title

The Tryon Country club championship title was won Sunday by Edward Sayre from Marion Palmer, last year's title holder. The score was 5 up and 4 in a 36-hole match. It was a nip-and-tuck affair until the last few holes. The winner's name is engraved on the cup each year and the champion is allowed to keep the cup for the year in which he is champion. Both players are N. C. State college men.

McCown Baby Dies

Sarah DuPre McCown, infant daughter of Mr. and Mrs. M. R. McCown passed away at St. Luke's hospital Monday afternoon. It was born Sept. 15. A family funeral service will be held at Tryon cemetery this afternoon at 3:30.

ATTENTION—WARDENS!

All air raid wardens will please meet at the Fire Department on Wednesday night, September 23rd, at 7:30 p. m. This meeting is very important. You will be given your identification cards.

If you have not already signed for duty, please come to this meeting as we need more men than we now have.

W. W. Creasman, Chief.

POSTAL EMPLOYEES MAY HELP: Postal employees are now permitted to aid in the harvesting of crops throughout the country, with or without pay, providing such work does not interfere with their postal duties. Postal regulations heretofore have prohibited employees from engaging in work outside their regular jobs.

CURB REPORTER

Weather Monday: High 74, low 59 . . . . Saturday's Magazine section of the Christian Science Monitor has three pages of color presenting pictures of Charles Dana Gibson, brother-in-law of Mrs. Lefty Flynn, and creator of the Gibson Girl. Mr. Gibson's pictures will be on exhibition in the Cincinnati Art Museum September 29th to October 25th. By coincidence in the regular edition of the Monitor for the same date on the Art, Music and Theatre page is an article entitled "The Return of Joyce Grenfell." Mrs. Grenfell is Mrs. Flynn's daughter. She entertained Tryon friends on a number of occasions when she visited Tryon in 1935. Part of the article is reproduced on page 3 of this Bulletin . . . New Bulletin subscriptions entered for Miss Peggy Lincoln, editor of the student newspaper at the Woman's College of the University of North Carolina, and for Private Joseph G. Walker, 34090584, somewhere in Northern Ireland with Hg. Btry. 151 F. A. Bn, A. P. O. 34, care Postmaster, New York. . . . The W. C. Wards have received another interesting letter from Capt. W. C. Ward, Jr., who writes of life on the Solomon Islands . . . . The war news in general is looking better. Stalin-grad still holds and the Russians are on the offensive in several places. The Japs are being driven back. . . .
