CURB REPORTER

Weather on Tuesday: high 77, low 53 . . . . The Carolina Cracker Jack string band entertainers will be at Tryon school Saturday night at 8:30. It is amateur night and all desiring to compete for a prize in singing or playing a musical instrument are invited to give their names to Mrs. Joe Anderson or to Mrs. R. E. Brantley . . . . P. N. Kelley returns to Mattoon, Ill., today after a visit with his son, Paul Kelly. Mr. Kelly has visited Dr. Washburn's Chalet at Lake Lure a number of summers but this year on account of gas rationing, etc., was unable to visit the lake. He plans to come back next year. . . . Mrs. W. E. Kilpin, who has been spending the summer at North Hatley in Canada, is on her way to Long Island, N. Y., for a few weeks' visit before returning to Tryon . . . . The Polk County Scrap Pile is getting bigger and bigger. Have you contributed your part. It is no sacrifice to give scrap and it helps a lot to win the war . . . . Read in a Baltimore paper Sunday a large ad about Kem Tone, the new scientific interior wall paint that requires only water for mixing, price $2.98 per gallon, which is enough for the average size room. On Monday Bill Gray of the Ballenger Co., advertised the same paint at the same price in the Bulletin.
