

ENTERED AS SECOND-CLASS MATTER AUGUST 20, 1928, AT THE POSTOFFICE
AT TRYON, N. C. UNDER THE ACT OF CONGRESS, MARCH 3, 1879

THE TRYON DAILY BULLETIN

The World's Smallest Daily Newspaper, Seth M. Vining, Editor.

Vol. 15. Est. 1-31-28

TRYON, N. C., THURSDAY, OCT. 1, 1942

MISS MARY PITKIN

Miss Mary Pitkin passed on this morning. This gentle woman will be greatly missed by the residents of Tryon for her genial way of meeting life cheered many. Miss Pitkin was 96 years old last seventh day of May, having been born in Rochester, New York. Her father, the Rev. Thos. C. Pitkin, was rector for years of St. Paul's church, Detroit, Mich., afterward St. Paul's Cathedral. Her mother was Harriet Star Pitkin. In Detroit Miss Pitkin was engaged in social work, long before that kind of work was recognized as a church obligation. Her work among the Italians there was well-known and her ability to speak that language stood her in good stead. She and her sisters came to Tryon as visitors and then settled here in 1916. They all entered into the life of Tryon and were very active in the Church and the Holy Cross, especially in the Woman's Auxiliary where their outgoing hearts found ample scope for expression. Miss Mary will be long remembered here by many whom she quietly aided financially when they were hard pressed in times of illness or depression. She was much loved by many of our colored citizens who loved her humor and her ability to enjoy the funny and odd side of life. She always met hardship courageously and with full Christian faith and a touch of humor.

Her sister, Miss Louisa Pitkin, whose 92nd birthday was yesterday, says that she knows that her sister would not "like any great masses of flowers" sent to

-----Continued on Back Page-----

CURB REPORTER

Weather Wednesday: low 35, high 67 . . . Tryon high school football team which lost a hard fought game to Hendersonville last Friday 14 to 0, goes to Greer, S. C., for a game this Friday night. Local fans were well pleased with the performance of the Tryon team last week. It isn't who wins that counts, but how the game is played . . . Tryon has two college students on major football teams, Bob DuRant, half-back for Davidson and Seth Vining, Jr., left guard for Duke. Both are sophomores. Last Saturday DuRant was listed on the official program as starting the game for Davidson and he played most of the game, although the newspaper reporter failed to note it. Vining playing on the third string was not called as Duke used only two teams against plucky Davidson which lost to Duke 21-0 . . . Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Jarvis have given up their home at Princeton and will come to Tryon next week to make their home with Mrs. Jarvis' mother, Mrs. W. E. Kilpin . . . Tryonites are looking forward to a joint meeting of the Rotary, Kiwanis and others the last week in October when Cliff Berryman, noted Washington Star cartoonist and creator of the Teddy Bear, will be the speaker at the Rotary program. While here he will be the guest of his friend William E. Knight at Waelhyl . . . The Charlotte Observer today used its entire front page to urge all citizens to gather their scrap metal and deposit it on scrap piles all over the state. The need for scrap

-----Continued on Back Page-----