TRYON, N. C., TUESDAY, OCT. 6, 1942

CURB REPORTER

Weather Monday: high 73; low, 62 In the appointment of Mr. Justice Byrnes to be the director of the new powerful economic stabilizing program, Tryon feels almost as if one of its own sons had moved into the White House. A former Spartanburg lawyer, congressman, senator and Roosevelts legislative leader until appointment to Supreme his Court last year, Jimmy (James Francis) Byrnes, has had wide experience for the task given him. The nation as a whole approves the appointment. With all the farmers, textile workers, mills and various business houses in Spartemburg county, where he lived so Director Byrnes should have a sympathetic understanding of the problems of agriculture, labor, business and industry. His homefolk believe in him: the We President believes in him. should get a fair administration. All during his political life, Jim-my Byrnes, as he is known to thousands of friends in this section, has come to Tryon for short recreation periods or to make a speech. Last year when Spartan-burg held "Jimmy Byrnes Day" in relebration of his visit and in acknowledgement of his achievements, the final party, a quiet dinner affair, was held in Tryon. And when the Shangri-La Flag was displayed on Trade street this ____ Continued in Back Page ____

Blue Ridge To Play Tryon Friday At Harmon Field

A furious dash is expected when the boys from the Blue Ridge School near Hendersonville meet the Tryon high football team in the first home game of the season, Friday, October 9th.

Everyone is urged to come out to the game, even if he has towalk to save his tiros. A good crowd always does a lot to bolster the spirits of the team, and those attending will get their money's worth of good football. The game will begin at 3:30 Friday afternoon.

FORMER BULLETIN BOYS IN THE ARMED FORCES

During newspaper week it was recalled by many of the large number of prominent men who began their careers as newspaper boys. The Bulletin is not old enough for its former carriers to have had time to achieve great success; but it is proud to know that a large number of its earlier carriers have grown into men now fighting in the army or navy for their country.

In recalling from memory a few of them the number is astonishing. Among the first were: Jim Brock. Radio Man Thomas Blackwell, Rufus Gosnell, "Snig" Chapman, Durham Gosnell, Ensign William Blackwell, Burgan Fortune, Edgar Davidson, Marion Williams, Francis Chapman, Sgt. Bruce Byers, Sgt. Hoke Jacobs, Petty Officer Sam Boone Shankle, Mack Foster, Edward Cox, and Richard McClure leaves next week.
