Hallowe'en Party

John Earle Camp celebrated his seventh birthday Monday afternoon with a Hallowe'en Party at the home of his mother. The guests received masks as they arrived and then played games while eating pop corn and candy. Prizes were awarded to Norma Spangle, Richard Alewine and Jackie Eargle. Later in the evening the guests were invited into the dining room where cake, punch and baskets of candy were served. Mrs. T. B. Waldrop and Miss Barbara Shields assisted Mrs. Camp with entertaining.

Friends of Milton Fouts, formerly of Tryon, will be interested to know that he is back with the Farmers Federation in Morganton. Mr. Fouts has been connected with the Federation in Tryon and a former manager at Lenoir.

SING A SONG OF CHINA

Sing a song of Allies;
A pocket full of tunes.
Four and umpty orchestras
Set up as many "croons."
And so we hear a plenty
Of Rhumbas, and the like
Of several nations' favorites
Come floating off the "mike".
We listen to the "Troika"
And "Scarlet Sarafan,"
And shout: "Hurrah for Russia!"
As loudly as we can.
But where is China's cheering
And complimentry tune?
Thus far we've failed to hear it.
Let's hope to hear it soon.
For surely they must have one—
A Chinese national hymn—
A nation with such backbone,
And such "self-rising" VIM!
Hilda Baldwin Siller. Tryon.
