

ENTERED AS SECOND-CLASS MATTER AUGUST 20, 1928, AT THE POSTOFFICE
AT TRYON, N. C. UNDER THE ACT OF CONGRESS, MARCH 3, 1879

THE TRYON DAILY BULLETIN

The World's Smallest Daily Newspaper, Seth M. Vining, Editor.

Vol. 15. Est. 1-31-28

TRYON, N. C., WEDNESDAY, OCT. 28, 1942

Congressman In Polk; He Speaks Tonight

Congressman A. L. Bulwinkle arrived in Polk county today for a two days visit. He hopes to visit every section of the county. He wants all the people to feel that he is their congressman and is eager to serve all the people to the best interests of the nation. Major Bulwinkle who will be the congressman for all Polk county people after the November election, will speak tonight at 8 o'clock at the county court house in Columbus. He wants all his new friends to be present so he can meet them and discuss the important issue in America today, "Our War Effort". Major Bulwinkle will be accompanied by his newly appointed secretary, Charles Z. Flack of Forest City, who is well-known in this section.

Saluda School "Goes Over Top" In Scrap Collection

Much friendly rivalry has existed in the school during the past three weeks in which each grade has tried to collect the largest amount of scrap. Local prizes were offered to the winning grades in the contest. At the close of the first week, the sixth grade was highest, with the fourth grade running a close second. A number of interested parents then came to the rescue of the second graders which raised their total to first place at the close of the second and third weeks.

Winners in the finals were: First place, the second grade, with a total of 11,981 pounds; second place, fourth grade, with a total of 7,390 pounds. Collections by

-----Continued in Back Page-----

CURB REPORTER

Weather Tuesday: high 59; low 33. . . . News has been received in Tryon of the rapid promotion of Miss Nellie Rushing who was inducted into the Woman's Auxiliary Army Corps on October 3. She was promoted to the WAAC band a week before completion of basic training. She is enjoying army life at Des Moines. . . . Mrs. James H. Perkins of Tryon and Greenwich, Conn., was the first here to donate extra automobile tires to the government, according to F. E. Worthington, Tryon station and express agent for the Southern Railroad. The express company collects the excess tires and ships them free of charge for the government to central warehouses. The Express Company gives a receipt to the person giving up the tires. The government will not allow anybody to have more than five tires after November 15th. . . . Davidson College News bureau sends out a story and picture of nine new members of the Beaver club, an honorary leadership club chosen exclusively from the sophomore class. Among the nine is listed the name of Bob DuRant of Tryon, son of Mr. and Mrs. R. S. DuRant. Bob has seen a lot of action in every football game Davidson has played this year and is one of his team's outstanding players. . . . The first detective story ever written will

-----Continued on Back Page-----