

ENTERED AS SECOND-CLASS MATTER AUGUST 20, 1928, AT THE POSTOFFICE
AT TRYON, N. C. UNDER THE ACT OF CONGRESS, MARCH 3, 1879

THE TRYON DAILY BULLETIN

The World's Smallest Daily Newspaper, Seth M. Vining, Editor.

Vol. 15. Est. 1-31-28

TRYON, N. C., FRIDAY, OCT. 30, 1942

Dates Given for Nov. Demonstration Meets

Schedule of Home Demonstration club meetings for November will be as follows:

Strong sturdy Babies will be topic for meetings.

Meat substitute dishes will be prepared by home agent at all meetings, eatable soy beans will be emphasized, one of best sources of protein.

Meat substitutes are: Eggs, cheese, all milk products and dried beans.

Peñiel, Monday, November 2 Meet with Mrs. W. J. Holbert.

Sunshine, Wednesday, November 4th. Meet with Mrs. D. M. Abrams.

Hickory Grove, Thursday, November 5. Meet with Mrs. Goff McSwain.

Mill Spring, Friday, November 6. Meet with Mrs. Broadus Mc-

November 9th through 13th, 4-H Achievement Day.

Cooper's Gap, Monday, November 16th. Meet at Community House.

Melvin Hill, Tuesday, November 17th. Meet at Mrs. G. C. Fagan's.

Green Creek, Wednesday, November 18th. Meet with Mrs. J. Melvin Swain.

New Hope, Thursday, November 19th. Meet with Mrs. J. Tanner Hines.

Sandy Plains, Friday, November 20th. Meet with Mrs. Hurshel McSwain.

-----Continued on Back Page-----

DO YOUR DUTY; VOTE TUESDAY, NOVEMBER 3rd

Lest we forget, Tuesday coming is election day.

Election day is the day each citizen of the county of voting age, has an opportunity to choose the men who will run his county and state governments.

By all means, go to the polls and vote on Tuesday. It is your patriotic duty to do so.

Regardless of political party, see that you cast a ballot in this coming Tuesday's election.

For the information of voters below are the names of the candidates, both Democrat and Republican, from which the people of Polk County will choose:

For Solicitor, 18th Judicial district, Clarence O. Ridings, incumbent Democrat. No Republican opposition.

For State Senator, 32nd Senatorial District, J. T. Bailey, Mrs. E. L. McKee, Democrats; W. C. Hennessee and Ralph Fisher, Republican opponents.

For House of Representatives, W. H. "Shorty" McDonald, Democrat; C. W. McGinnis, Republican.

For Sheriff, W. D. Hines, incumbent Democrat; W. D. Westbrook, Republican.

For Clerk of Superior Court, Robert S. McFarland, incumbent Democrat; Geo. B. Logan, Republican.

For Tax Collector, W. C. Hague, incumbent Democrat; Ed Newman, Republican.

For County Commissioner, G. C. -----Continued in Back Page-----