

ENTERED AS SECOND-CLASS MATTER AUGUST 20, 1928, AT THE POSTOFFICE
AT TRYON, N. C. UNDER THE ACT OF CONGRESS, MARCH 3 1879

THE TRYON DAILY BULLETIN

The World's Smallest Daily Newspaper, Seth M. Vining, Editor.

Vol. 15. Est. 1-31-28

TRYON, N. C., MONDAY, NOV. 2, 1942

URB REPORTER

Weather: Saturday high 69, low 48; Sunday high 68; low 47, rain .70 Frank Wall, U. S. Marines, writing from Gaudalcanal, Solomon Islands on October 7th, to Robert Andrews says: "Tell your pop hello and to write me. How is our football team this year? Is Edward still there? I wish I were there, but maybe it won't be so long before I get back. It is hot here. Mosquitoes are as big as flies, and millions of ants everywhere. But there aren't many Japs left. Old Tojo has been catching hell. Bill Ward came to see me right after I was hit. I think he is worried about his wife. Tell everyone at school hello for me. I'll stop now and see if I can find somebody with a fishhook and go to the river . . ." Captain Ward's wife and baby son are in Tryon and both are well Frank Wall also sent Robert some Jap occupation money printed in Japanese and English. Private Wall's letter was sent by air mail, postage due as stamps were not available Tryon Kiwanis club will meet Tuesday at 1 p. m., at Oak Hall. J. N. Jackson in charge of program . . . Although November is here it is still October weather with bright sunshine, blue skies and the foliage never more colorful or prettier. Just a treat to visit Tryon now . . . Mrs. Edgar Rowe, who

-----Continued on Back Page-----

PERSONAL MENTION

Miss Jennie Sue Rector of Winston-Salem is relieving Mrs. Mary Pedraja temporarily at the Western Union office.

Miss Nellie Rushing of Hamlet hospital, Hamlet, N. C., is visiting her mother, Mrs. S. R. Rushing, who has been ill.

Mrs. J. W. Newman, who is making her home with her daughter, Mrs. John L. Smith, at Gaffney, S. C., has returned to Columbus for a visit.

Miss Emma Eve Gardner of Marietta, Ga., is again visiting her aunt, Mrs. B. King Couper at the Rock House Art Gallery.

Sgt. Harold Swain of the San Bernardino, Calif., Air Depot, is visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Swain, on Route One, Campobello. His sister, Mrs. Charles W. Dollar, nee Joyce Swain, formerly in the county office at Columbus, is also home from Panama City, Fla., where her husband is stationed at Tyndall Field.

Mr. and Mrs. Eulan Ford are parents of a daughter born Saturday at St. Luke's hospital.

Mrs. Herbert Beck and Mrs. Schuyler Hamilton are in Fort Lauderdale, Fla., for a two week's stay.

Wanted: The Rationing Board is in urgent need of three additional small desks or writing tables. If you have one that you would be willing to loan please telephone 349.