

ENTERED AS SECOND-CLASS MATTER AUGUST 20, 1928, AT THE POSTOFFICE
AT TRYON, N. C. UNDER THE ACT OF CONGRESS, MARCH 3 1879

THE TRYON DAILY BULLETIN

The World's Smallest Daily Newspaper, Seth M. Vining, Editor.

Vol. 15. Est. 1-31-28

TRYON, N. C., TUES., NOV. 17, 1942

CURB REPORTER

Weather Monday: low 26, high 65 . . . John Vollmer has been transferred from Keesler Field, Miss. to Chanute Field, Ill., Barracks 379, 7th T.S.S. He says he misses the Bulletin. . . Miss Betty Doubleday now field executive for the American Girl Scouts, has enlisted in the Red Cross for foreign service, and will be home around Thanksgiving for a few days visit with her sister, Mrs. J. S. Blackwell before going into service . . . New subscription entered for Mr. and Mrs. Hoyt Wilkie of Portsmouth, Va. . .

President Roosevelt speaks tonight at 10:30 over the radio in connection with the N.Y. Herald Tribune forum. Subject, The United Nations — Their Creed for a Free World.

Americans claim that the Japs have lost 365 ships since Pearl Harbor. That over one per day

U. S. Navy won big battle in Solomon Islands this week. The Japs are on the run. Americans sink 23 Jap ships and kill 24,000 troops.

Americans continue their drive in North Africa to meet the fleeing Germans pursued by the British. French in Africa cooperate with Allies.

G. Harrison Bridgeman of Tryon killed the first deer at 8:30 Monday morning on opening day of the two-week Pisgah National Forest deer and bear hunt which

Continued on Back Page

KEROSENE RATIONING

Registration Dates: Thursday and Friday, November 19 and 20. Hours 9 a. m. to 4 p. m.

All Polk county consumers must register on these dates at the nearest school. There will be no registration at the Colored Schools. Colored people should register at the nearest White school

This registration is for all consumers who use Kerosene or Fuel Oil for the following purposes: 1. Cooking and lighting. (2) Farm trucks, tractors, machinery, etc. (3) Other uses such as refrigerators, insecticides, cleaning tools, etc.

This registration is NOT for consumers using kerosene or fuel oil for house or water heating, as such consumers must make application at the Rationing Board office in Tryon.

J. D. Drew, Chairman Fuel Oil Rationing Committee.

Expect Visitors Wednesday

Mrs. F. P. Bacon of the Citizens Service Corps has announced the following committees who are to canvass the community on Wednesday to borrow household goods to be used by evacuees in case of emergency: Gillette Woods Miss Katharine Hamilton; Godshaw Hill and Hunting Country, Mrs. George Jenks; Melrose Ave., Mrs. T. E. Brown; Melrose Circle and Lane, Mrs. C. L. McGavern; Valley, Mrs. Robert Erskine; Grady Ave., Asheville highway and Columbus road, Mrs. R. M. McCown.

The committees will ask you to lend cots, beds, mattresses, mattress covers, pillows, pillow cases, blankets, towels, bed pans, water bottles, hot water bottles, bedside tables, cushions, etc.