CURB REPORTER

The recent good news about American victories should stimulate us all to do more work at home. A little cooperation from everybody works wonders. The Bulletin is being printed every day now with a shortage of two men, but thanks to the merchants who get their advertisements in the office at least a day before they are printed, we are able to get the paper out on time. All long articles must be cut down. Just stop - and ask yourself if you are willing to pay one cent a word for the extra words you want in. . . . Wages and hours affect the little business more than it does the big one. In most big plants you can't get in without a special permit. In Tryon a customer can rush up to a clerk and demand to be waited on. Then a friend comes in. A little visit takes place before the clerk can complete the job of serving the customer. If she takes up ten minutes of a clerk's time to buy a few groceries, etc. the merchant loses money. A list handed the clerk would save the clerk time, the merchant money, and if everybody did it you would be helped in the long run because you would not have to wait so long on the person ahead of you. . . . C. J. Lynch killed a deer Monday, and President George A. Cathey of the Kiwanis club was

Scouts and Cubs Meet

Prior to the Boy Scout Court of Honor meeting held Monday in the School house, a short but interesting Cub Pack meeting was held. There were about 16 Cubs present; also the Den mother, Mrs. R. H. Brady, and the Assistant Cub master, R. L. Dick.

After the Pack meeting the Boy Scout Court of Honor opened with prayer by Rev. R. W. Blanchard, court chairman who presided. Scout oath was led by Scout executive R. M. Schiele. He also announced the death of Walker G. Hamner of Gastonia, Council Scout commissioner. All present stood a moment in silence followed with prayer by Mr. Blanchard.

Scouts advanced in rank were Tenderfoot: Billy McKaig, Handicraft, Bobby Bishop; Public Health, Billy Dick; Zoology, Bobby Dick.

In the Negro Troop Joseph Griffin was advanced to second class. In Athletics: Austin Mack, Ulysses Burchette, John Brown, Herbert Lee Hannon, Thomas Artie Hamilton; Personal Health, Austin Mack, Herbert Lee Hannon, Daniel Ziegler, John Brown, Thos. Artie Hamilton, Ulysses Burchette; Scholarship, Carroll Waymon; Star Scout Rank, Austin Mack, Ulysses Burchette.

Meeting closed with the Indian benediction.

Sitting on the Court of Honor were R. H. Brady, Nelson Jackson, Jr., Lawrence Mazzanovich, R. L. Dick, M. B. Caldwell, Seth M. Vining, R. M. Schiele and Rev. R. W. Blanchard
