TRYON SCHOOL DISTRICT HOLIDAYS ARE GIVEN

Tryon schools will suspend work Tuesday afternoon for Thanksgiving, reopening Monday, November 30th.

The Christmas holidays will begin Friday afternoon, December 18th, and school will start again January 4th.

Three days are being allotted for the Thanksgiving holidays in order to save as much fuel as possible during the winter months. All holidays as customary will be made up at the end of the spring semester.

Tryon Peaches In Egypt

Capt. Alan W. Holmes, nephew of G. H. Holmes of Tryon, now with the Army in Egypt, wrote his mother recently that he had a can of peaches the other day marked: "PEACHES-Packed and Donated by the Association for War Relief, Tryon, North Carolina." Everyone who had a part in growing victory gardens and in helping to pack the food for War Relief will be interested in knowing that some of their labor was not in vain.
