

ENTERED AS SECOND-CLASS MATTER AUGUST 20, 1928, AT THE POSTOFFICE
AT TRYON, N. C. UNDER THE ACT OF CONGRESS, MARCH 3, 1879

THE TRYON DAILY BULLETIN

The World's Smallest Daily Newspaper, Seth M. Vining, Editor.

Vol. 15. Est. 1-31-28

TRYON, N. C., WEDNESDAY, DEC. 2, 1942

CURB REPORTER

Weather Tuesday: low 40, high 54, rain .90 . . . News Bureau at WCUNC reports that Miss Jean Derby of Tryon is one of 15 students who have been named Senior Life Savers and presented Red Cross certificates after completing the requirements . . . Mrs. Meegan says the rumor that Thousand Pines Inn would close for the season is false. The famous old inn will continue to serve its clientele as in the past as far as rationing will allow . . . The war news continues to improve for our side. The Russians are closing trap on Germans, 50 big German transport planes destroyed over Russia. Big battle on to wipe out Axis in Tunisia. Another French submarine joins Allies. Fight looms in Solomons as Japs and Allies maneuver for action, but Americans have the edge. U. S. submarines sink five Jap ships. This makes a total of 148 Jap ships sunk by our undersea craft . . . Another group of Polk County soldiers leave this week . . . The Hendersonville Times-News reports that Mitchell P. Andrews, Jr. "Dutch", will leave from Henderson county for the army . . . New Bulletin subscription entered for J. G. Landrum, Jr., A. S. V-6, A. S. N. R., U. S. Naval Recruit Center, Bldg. 906, Platoon 48, U. S. Naval Air Station, Jacksonville, Fla.; Mrs.

Continued on Back Page

Clyde R. Hoey Addresses Executive Scout Meeting

In spite of the weather, the district meeting of the Piedmont Council held at Shelby Tuesday night at Hotel Charles was well attended. There were present from the various 11 counties comprising the district, 54 Scout leaders. Among those attending was former Governor Clyde R. Hoey, who made a short talk in which he said that no better proof of the interest in Scouting was needed than the attendance at the meeting.

Interest in Scouting and Cubbing in the Piedmont Council has never been more in evidence than at this time, and all the counties of the district are expecting an increase in membership of the Scout troops and the Cub packs.

Those attending the Shelby district meeting from Tryon were: Dr. C. W. McCall, Scoutmaster of troop No. 1; Rev. R. W. Blanchard, chairman of the Court of Honor and R. H. Brady, county chairman.

An Appeal To The Parents of Boys In Tryon

If your boy is 12 years of age, or over, the Scouting program needs him. He needs the Scout program. This country needs men now, and after this war is over, it will need men more than ever. A boy who has taken advantage of all the Scout program has to offer will be a better man for having done so.

Boys need that encouragement which only parents can give them. They may be thinking of joining the Scouts, but just haven't taken

Continued on Back Page