Mrs. Banning At Lanier Club

Our distinguished townswoman, Mrs. Margaret Culkin Banning, spoke to a large and enthusiastic audience at the library on Thursday. Her subject was the Present British Mood, and nothing could have been more timely or more illuminating.

Recent utterances in the press and on the air need to be firmly contradicted by those who KNOW what Great Britain has done and is still doing to stem the tide of barbarism. This week has been "expressly British" for Tryon; starting with Winston Churchill's stirring speech on Sunday, which expressed the mind and will of the Nation, and followed by the moving scenes from Mrs. Miniver, which demonstrated the spirit of British home life and the indomitable courage of the English people. Mrs. Banning's discussion made a fitting climax, presenting a vivid and intelligent picture of the entire British scene and showing of true relationship to our great

No one hearing this comprehensive talk could fail to be convinced that our alliance is a true and logical one; that the fortunes of war and the fruits of victory depend upon it; and, most important of all, that there can be no lasting peace in the world of nations that does not include the permanence of the British Commonwealth and our alliance with it.—Contributed.

The Rev. Dr. Warren W. Way, recently of Atlantic City, N. J., who has moved to Tryon to make his home, will be the guest minister at the Episcopal Church of the Holy Cross Sunday morning at 11 o'clock.
