CURB REPORTER

Weather Thursday: High 50, low 30 . . . Here's an interesting letter from Pfc. Herbert C. Rhodes, a Polk County soldier in Africa. He says: "Dear Mr. Vining, I receive your paper every month. It is really nice to get the news from home. I think of you people back there quite often. Sure would like to be back, but I guess I'll hang around over here and see what happens next. This really has been a long summer, in fact one of the longest that I have ever seen. (Letter written Dec. 2, arrived in Tryon Dec. 10th.) I think I have been out of the States for about nine months, and it has been plenty hot all the time. When I say out of the States, I mean OUT. We were at one place for a while. I can't tell just where that was, but we are in Africa now. It really gets hot here occasionally. The flowers are blooming all the time. I can't forget that good old mountain water back there. Please tell the Home Friendly club that I received their gifts and that I really appreciate the work that they are doing. Kelly Pittman, Clyde Cash, George Souther and I send our best regards to friends back home." . . . Tommy Phipps has finished his officers training course at Fort Benning and is now Lieutenant Tommy Phipps, 1918 Wynnton Road, Columbus, Ga. He has been on a furlough visiting his moth-

REV. R. H. MORGAN

Rev. R. H. Morgan, 47, well-known Baptist minister and brother of Mrs. P. G. Morris of Tryon, passed away Wednesday at his home at Mars Hill after several weeks of illness. Burial service will be held Saturday at 1 p. m. at Morgan's Chapel in Polk County. Mr. Morgan was a son of the late Henry C. and Sophia Hill Morgan of Polk County. He was reared at Morgan's Chapel, was educated at Mars Hill and was pastor of several Baptist churches in this section and in Buncombe county before going to Mars Hill. He is survived by his second wife, the former Miss Margaret Hampton of Hickory; one brother, R. E. Morgan of Greer, S. C., and two sisters, Mrs. J. S. Webster of Houston, Texas, and Mrs. P. G. Morris of Tryon. His first wife was Miss Fannie Randolph of Landrum, who died several years ago. No children survive from either marriage.
