

MEET YOUR FRIENDS AT "THE PRESCRIPTION STORE"
OWEN'S PHARMACY, Phone 202. WALGREEN AGENCY

Flags of the Allied Nations, made by Mrs. J. R. Trowbridge for the Tryon school will be presented to the school at a public program on Friday at 12:30 a.m.

These flags, 25 in number, measuring approximately 12x18 inches, will be presented by Nelson Jackson, Jr., and accepted for the school by the class representatives of the Victory Corps: Elizabeth Anne Vining, senior; Bobby Dick, junior; Louise Owens, sophomore; Janet Derby, freshman.

The Christmas play, "At the Inn," will follow this part of the program.

MRS. PEELER has moved her photo shop upstairs over A&P store near Dr. Derby's office. See her for Christmas Greetings, film developing, pictures and restringing of pearls.—Adv.

THE BULLETIN—6 months $1.

FOR RENT: Six room house in Columbus. City water and electricity. Apply to E. B. Cloud, Columbus, N. C.—Adv. 17, 22p.

A solo contest will be held tonight, Dec. 17, at Tryon Colored school, given by fourth and fifth grades. Public invited. H. Hannon, teacher.

Call 258-J for oven fresh home cooked food, cakes, pies, rolls, cookies and bread. Put in your order now for fruit cake so to be sure to have it for Christmas. Mrs. J. S. "Dick" Kell.—Advertisement thurs tf.

A Complete Assortment of BIRDSEYE FROSTED
FOODS
ANDREWS & COMPANY

Old or new copies of The Tryon Daily Bulletin for sale at 5c each.

Just Received—

Shipment of
CUT FLOWERS

—at—

COSTA'S

(At Tryon Fuel Supply)

Phone 154

Tryon, N. C.