

ENTERED AS SECOND-CLASS MATTER AUGUST 20, 1928, AT THE POSTOFFICE
AT TRYON, N. C. UNDER THE ACT OF CONGRESS, MARCH 3 1879

THE TRYON DAILY BULLETIN

The World's Smallest Daily Newspaper, Seth M. Vining, Editor.

Vol. 15. Est. 1-31-28 TRYON, N. C., FRIDAY, DEC 18, 1942

CURB REPORTER

Weather Thursday: high 48, low 23 Are you prepared for the black out which will come upon us without notice except for the sound of the fire siren? The Christmas Bulletin of the Maine Sea Coast Society received here by the Rev. Chas. G. Sewall, makes mention of Dr. Anna Balfour who made her home in Tryon for several years. "On September 12th the little passenger boat from Rockland to Vinalhaven had among its passengers by coincidence two new arrivals to the island, Dr. Anna Balfour and Mrs. Ruth Osborne, R. N. Dr. Balfour, seriously injured during the battle of Britain, has come to America with her two small children. Her husband, also a doctor, with the armed forces of England. These two consecrated people have come to the coast of Maine to render their full measure of service, Dr. Balfour as Vinalhaven Island's physician and Mrs. Osborne as Mission-Red Cross nurse. Seldom have two people come to our Maine coast to so quickly win their way into the hearts of the people." . . . Pfc. Paul Cantrell has moved from Fort Jackson to Co. K. 121 Inf., Apo. 8, Fort Leonard Wood, Mo. . . . A new subscription entered for Mr. and Mrs. H. Ferguson of Detroit, who are occupying the Lefty Flynn's home, Little Or-
-----Continued on Back Page-----

S. R. O. at the U. S. O.

Twenty tables of enthusiastic players enjoyed the party at the Service Men's club Wednesday night, and as many more who could not come contributed financially, making a sum total of enjoyment and dollars which is most gratifying. The committee wishes to thank all those who gave their services, refreshments, prizes, and presence, which all went to make the party such a pleasant success.

Now the club rooms, which were so generously donated by the late Mayor Missildine and renovated by a group of Tryon girls, can continue to remain open for the use of our soldiers.—Contributed.

CHRISTMAS MUSIC

The Christmas music at the Erskine Memorial Congregational church will be as follows: Organ numbers with Mrs. E. E. Missildine at the organ. Prelude, "Herald Angels" by Stults; offertory, "Silent Night", "Holy Night"; postlude, "A Mighty Fortress," (hymn arrangement); Choir anthems with Miss Frances Hudson, conducting: "Arise, Shine" "Sing, O Heavens," by Caleb Simper.

Dr. C. Arthur Lincoln, the pastor, will preach on the theme: "Christmas—and the Difference It Makes."

Date Is Changed For "The Promised One"

The pageant "The Promised One", which was to have been given in the Methodist church on Tuesday evening has been changed to Wednesday evening, December 23rd. The public is invited.