Speaks Here Tuesday

Hon. Clyde R. Hoey

Former Governor Clyde R. Hoey of Shelby will be the guest speaker at the joint meeting of the Tryon Kiwanis and Rotary clubs on Tuesday night at 7:30 at Oak Hall hotel. It is a ladies' night affair and a large crowd is expected. Members desiring to bring extra guests should notify C. W. Nessmith or the secretaries of their clubs this weekend.

An interesting program of fellowship and fun has been arranged.

Governor Hoey is one of the outstanding speakers of the state.

Edwin and Freida Beach will be in charge of the music.

Miss Patricia Hale Becomes Bride of Robert C. Michael

Against a background of Christmas greens and gleaming white candles, the marriage of Miss Patricia Hale, daughter of Mrs. Caroline H. Hale of Tryon and Mr. Robert Campbell Michael, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Michael of Milwaukee, Wisconsin, was solemnized Friday evening at eight o'clock at the Church of the Holy Cross. The double ring ceremony was performed by the Rev. Dr. George Farrand Taylor. The altar was decorated with Christmas greens and tall, white candles set in candelabras. Small groves of trees were arranged around the chancel and the centre aisle was bordered with small cedar trees.

The bride was escorted to the altar by her mother, who gave her in marriage. She wore a gown of ivory brocade with a heart shaped neckline. The long-waisted bodice had long sleeves and a full skirt. Her long veil of ivory tulle had a starched crown of rose point and she carried a bouquet of white orchids and stephanotis.

Mrs. Woodley B. Osborne, of Englewood, New Jersey, was her sister's matron of honor and Miss Nancy Michael, sister of the bridegroom was maid of honor. The bridesmaids were Miss Mary Ellen Coughlin, of Milwaukee, Wis., Miss Katherine McIlvaine, of Burlington, Vt., a former roommate of the bride and Miss Faye Sprague, of Tryon. All were attired alike in gowns of turquoise-blue brocade, fashioned like the bride's, but with short sleeves.
