Vol. 15. Est. 1-31-28 TRYON, N. C., TUESDAY, DEC. 22, 1942

CURB REPORTER

Weather Monday: high 42; low 21. The mountains around Tryon were beautiful Monday morning when the clouds condensed and froze on the trees giving the effect of snow capped peaks. Just another example of the thermal belt. There was no rain or snow in Tryon . . . .

In the December issue of the National Publisher, printed in Chicago, is an article on Community Service in War by Fred J. Noeth of Hicksville, N. Y., which is illustrated by a photograph of the front page of the Tryon Daily Bulletin which had a report of the Citizens Service Corps, collection of junk, conservation of electricity, the entertainment of Camp Croft soldiers

Mrs. Bacon's committee, the swapping of jobs by Major Sharp and Preacher Henry, and a note on our soldiers and sailors at home and abroad . . . Rodney Constance, coxswain on the San Francisco, the ship which was bombed by the Japs, is home for a visit with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Bowen Constance. Sellars Edwards and Jack Constance who are on the same ship, will get their leave in January for a visit home . . . . The War News continues to look better with Rommel on the run, the Russians pushing back the Germans and the French aiding the Allies in Africa . . . The U. S. Supreme Court has ruled that the six-week Neva-
