TRYON, N. C., MONDAY, DEC. 28, 1942

CURB REPORTER

Weather for the Christmas weekend: low 31, high 60, rain .32 . . . It is not too late to report how much coffee you had on November 28th. And you must REPORT whether you had any or not, if you want to get some more coffee on the new ration book. So just write on a postal card now these words: "I had (a pound, half pound, or no coffee as the case may be) on November 28th." Then address it to the Polk County Rationing Board, Tryon, N. C. That's all there is to it Lee Collins writing from North Africa to his mother, Mrs. Mae C. Collins of Tryon, says, "The people here speak either French or Italian, and they dress just like you have seen them in the National Geographic magazine." Lee formerly lived in Landrum. He trained in Oklahoma as a machine gunner in the air corps and is now in French Morocco. His letter was dated November 24th, and wished his mother a Merry Christmas. It arrived here December 24th, just in time to deliver his message . . . Sgt. Ralph J. Metcalf has been transferred to the Air Field at St. Simons Island, Ga. . . . Lieut. Nelson Jackson, III, has been transferred from Camp Wolters, Tex., to Phoenix, Ariz., the Montgomery Whalers are getting theirs at Fort Lauderdale, Fla. New Bulletin subscriptions for Mrs. W R.

TRYON BANK IS THIRD IN NATION DEC. 26TH

The American Banker, the only daily banking newspaper, published in New York, reported a list of banks selling over 10 per cent of its deposits in War Bonds. Of those reported on December 26th, the Tryon Bank & Trust Co., was third in North Carolina, but the three in North Carolina lead the nation. Rocky Point bank had sold 39.9 per cent of its deposits, the Bank of Wayne at Goldsboro, 39.3 and the Tryon Bank & Trust Co., 35.8. The Coldwater, Mich., bank had 28.6 per cent. President Julian B. Hester of the Tryon Bank is chairman of the Polk County War Bond committee and a member of the district Victory Loan committee.

COMMUNICATIONS

My dear Mr. Vining:

I enclose a small cheque to add to the Flag Fund started by Mr. Erskine. To me it is for the Tryon boys and for my son, Lt. Richard G. Kirchner, Jr., of the U. S. Army Signal Corps. My mother, Mrs. Kilpin, also encloses a contribution. With out best wishes that the flag may soon be flying,

I am sincerely yours,

Vita Campau Jarvis.
