

ENTERED AS SECOND-CLASS MATTER AUGUST 20, 1928, AT THE POSTOFFICE
AT TRYON, N. C. UNDER THE ACT OF CONGRESS, MARCH 3 1879

THE TRYON DAILY BULLETIN

The World's Smallest Daily Newspaper, Seth M. Vining, Editor.

Vol. 15, Est. 1-31-28

TRYON, N. C., WEDNESDAY, DEC. 30, 1942

CURB REPORTER

The weather report failed to show up this morning in the key hole. However, the sun is shining and it is very delightful to be outside after the rainy spell . . .

Miss Pauline Gordon, extension home management and house furnishing specialist of State College, Raleigh, will arrive this weekend to help Miss Gladys Hamrick on January 4th, 5th and 6th with the 4-H club work on kitchen plans, floor furnishings, and farm and home plans . . . Mrs. Ella Fowles has heard from her son, J. E. Fowles, radioman in the Navy. Says he received the Home Friendly club Christmas greeting written by Mrs. Gray and that he appreciated the thoughtfulness, prayers and recognition given the men in the service by the Tryon people . . . Friday, Jan. 1st, is national prayer day by proclamation of President Roosevelt. Eddie Rickenbacker, believed in prayer . . . A poultry shipment will be made from Polk County on January 7th. If you have some old hens to turn into money, now is the time . . . Have you reported the amount of coffee you had on November 28th? If you want coffee next month you must report how much you had on November 28th. - If you didn't have any coffee, report that too. Just address a postal card to the Polk County Rationing Board,

Continued on Back Page

TO OBSERVE NATIONAL PRAYER DAY HERE

In accordance with the President's Thanksgiving Day Proclamation asking that New Year's Day be observed as a Day of Prayer, there will be held an half hour's service at the First Baptist church in Tryon on Friday, January 1st, at 12 noon. All citizens are invited to come and start the New Year with prayer and request for God's care of ourselves, our men and women in the services, and our beloved land during the coming year.

HERE FOR WEDDING

Among the out-of-town guests arriving for the Bates-Lincoln wedding on New Year's Eve are Mrs. B. Franklin Boan of Newport News, matron-of-honor, and sister of the bride, will be a guest of her parents, Dr. and Mrs. C. Arthur Lincoln; Lieut. Ted Bates of Camp Lee, Va., the groom; George Via, III, of Wilmington, an usher; Dr. and Mrs. E. M. Gwathmey of Converse college, guests of the groom's parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Bates, Miss Eleanor Edwards of Asheville, roommate of the bride, is the guest of Miss Mary Palmer. Miss Nancy Abernathy, Miss Mary Frances Howell and Miss Nancy Sosley, all of Asheville who will arrive Thursday and will be guests of Miss Mary Palmer.

● A Government program to insure a market for farmers in 12 Southern states who have expanded egg production to meet wartime requirements will again be available in 1943.