Miss Margaret Lincoln Weds Lieutenant Thomas E. Bates

Miss Margaret Hartridge Lincoln, daughter of the Reverend Dr. and Mrs. C. Arthur Lincoln, became the bride of Lieutenant Thomas Edward Bates, United States Army, son of Mr. and Mrs. Wilfred C. Bates, on New Year's Eve in the Erskine Memorial Congregational church. The ceremony was performed by the bride's father.

The church was decorated with evergreens, poinsettias, and white branched candelabra. Mr. Edwin Beach sang two solos, "Within the Garden of My Heart" by Ruth Lincoln Boan, and the nuptial hymn, "O Perfect Love" preceding the ceremony. The traditional wedding marches were played by Mrs. E. E. Missildine, organist.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her brother-in-law, Mr. C. E. Bittner, of Flushing, N. Y., wore her mother's wedding dress, fashioned of ivory liberty satin with a high neck and Irish yoke, full elbow-length sleeves, and a full skirt ending in a short train. Her tulle veil of finger-tip length fell from a fitted cap of Irish lace. She carried a prayer-book with a shower of bouvardia and a white orchid. The prayer book belonged to her great-great grandmother for whom she was named.

The bride was attended by her three sisters, Miss Barbara Lincoln, of Winston-Salem, as maid-of-honor; Mrs. C. E. Bittner, of Flushing, N. Y., and Mrs. B. Franklin Boan of Newport News, Va., as matrons-of-honor. All three attendants wore similar
