CURB REPORTER

Weather Friday: high 65, low 25 Corporal S. R. Rushing of Fort Hancock, N. J., writes, "Just a line to let you know that I receive the Bulletin regularly I enjoy it very much. It is almost like a letter from home. The boys here like it also, and read each copy thoroughly. They insist that it lacks only one thing—a comic strip. I envy your Tryon weather, and wish I could come down for a few days of sunshine. It is cold here and rains or snows continuously. Give my regards to all." The Public Relations Dept. of Camp Robinson, Arkansas reports that Private Larry Brooks of Tryon has been assigned for training to the Medical Placement Center there, for eight weeks, after which he will be assigned for duty to some Medical Department organization. . . . Pvt. James V. McCrain is at Camp Lee, Va., Co. L, 10th QMTR. T. 616 2nd Platoon Ralph Erskine, chairman of the Bulletin Flag Fund, sends the following communication: "Mrs. James Trowbridge is giving to the Bulletin Flag Fund for a large flag and pole for the community. She has already given a set of small flags of the Allied Nations to our school, which she made. The materials alone cost over $20. Mrs. Trowbridge made a set of flags of Allied Nations for the
