TO ENTERTAIN SOLDIERS

Next Sunday, January 10th, the church people of Tryon will again entertain soldiers from Camp Croft. Those who will entertain guests from Camp Croft at dinner are asked to notify Mrs. F. P. Bacon as early in the week as possible. Forty men are expected. The Parish House will be open at four o'clock in the afternoon, where hosts are asked to bring their guests. Games and singing will be enjoyed; there will be a brief religious service, conducted by Dr. George F. Taylor; and supper will be served. Expressions of appreciation from men who have been entertained in Tryon during the last year show that this plan of entertainment is very much worth while.

DONALD RICHARD FORD

Donald Richard Ford, two-weeks old son of Mr. and Mrs. Grover Ford of Columbus, died at his home Sunday morning after a short illness. The little boy is survived by his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Grover Ford, three sisters, Jenette, Mary Elizabeth and Margaret Ford and one brother Earle Ford, all of Columbus. Funeral services were held Monday morning at 11 o'clock at White Oak Baptist church with the Rev. Malcolm J. Ross officiating. Burial in the church cemetery.
